

HOMELESS AFTER FIRE

By PAUL CROMPTON

A RETIRED couple have been left homeless after an electrical appliance sparked the huge fire that ripped through their Lyme Regis home.

Richard and Barbara Mayers are this week taking stock of the devastation caused by a de-humidifier in their loft, which has left their Cobb Road house uninhabitable.

The fire was one of the biggest to hit the town in years and took 30 fire fighters from six stations an hour to get under control using two crews with breathing apparatus.

The fire left gapping holes in the roof and damaged

CAREY Chant has been the landlord at The King's Head in Bradpole for three years.

This weekend the pub will be joining forces with Bradpole's open-air music festival for "The Event 2", a fundraising day of fun, games and musical entertainment.

The festival and fun day will be raising money for the street children of Calcutta, The Bridport Burma Appeal and the Dorset Residential Homes.

Carey and his wife Mandy took the leap into the pub industry to fulfil a long harboured dream after many years working in supported housing.

Like many others, football fan Carey was disappointed by England's early exit at this summer's World Cup but he is now turning his attentions to his beloved Derby County.

When not working Carey enjoys taking his dog for a walk and taking regular holidays.

■ WHY did you decide to get involve with "The Event"?

One thing we are always wanting to promote is fundraising for the local community. We have done our fun day fundraiser for a couple of years and then Fel Moore did this music event last year. We both held the events around the same time so we decided to put our resources together and promote it for both our causes this year as one big event.

■ WHAT part will you be playing at the pub?

We have been doing a lot of the organising and the advertising here. We have been getting a lot of the bands together because we play music here on a regular basis so I have got a lot of bands who I am in contact with, who have fortunately come to do it for free.

■ ANY particular acts you are looking forward to?

Yeah Tom Toomey is one of the main acts. He is a fantastic guitarist who has played here a few times and he has done some of the Music for Africa events at Montacute House. He is a very talented musician. We have many other great acts though, we have Elijah Wolf and Orpheus as well and we have quite a unique act, which is a newly formed children's choir. It's an all day event so we want to have the children involved as well.

■ WHAT separates this event from others locally?

It's a bit unique as it's an outside event really. It worked well last year and it's coming together well again this year. It's a whole day of music, fun and games with fancy dress. It's all for charity so hopefully it will be supported well.

■ WHAT made you decide to move into the pub industry?

Well it was always something me and Mandy talked about for years and years and the opportunity came along. We thought "shall we do it now?" and there were plenty of reasons why we shouldn't but we decided financially the opportunity had arose so lets go for it.

■ WHAT attracted you to the pub?

Just being my own boss really. Obviously in the work I had done previously I was working with people all the time and so I just enjoy working with people and it worked out really well.

■ WHAT are the best places you have visited?

The best place I've visited is Lake Como in Italy, it's absolutely stunning. I'd still love to go to New Zealand, I've heard so many people say what a fantastic country it is and how picturesque it all is. That might have to be inbetween pubs though as it would be a long trip.

■ WHO would be your three dream guests at a dinner party?

I think it would have to be Cameron Diaz to start. I assume my wife would be there so we would have to have Johnny Depp, he's quite cool and she likes him. The other one would be Charlie George who was my football hero when I was a child.

■ WHAT was the last book you read, CD you listened to and film you watched?

The last book I read was Brian Clough's autobiography, I'm very in to football and he was great at Derby. The CD was the Black Eyed Peas and the film I went to watch was Alice and Wonderland in 3D.

Fire rips through roof

joists leaving the property too dangerous to enter. Water used to extinguish the flames has caused water damage throughout the house.

Current estimates put the cost of making the home habitable again at over £100,000.

Mrs Mayers received minor burns on her arms and legs from melting roofing felt when she tried to stop the blaze using a bucket of water.

She said: "Because the de-humidifier made noise at night we switch it off. I got up at quarter past seven and switched it on about 7.30 am while my husband had a shave and sorted himself out, and I went down stairs.

"Then about ten past eight he shouted 'what's that noise' and he shouted there's flames in the roof and the roof is on fire.

"Then stupidly I got the loft hatch roof ladder down to see if I could put it out, but when I looked I realised I couldn't and said call the fire brigade."

Amongst the sentimental items lost in the home the couple retired to six years ago, and which has been in the family for over 50 years, were photographs, ornaments and their son's train sets and dinky toys.

"We've lost sentimental things but you have to be positive; life goes on," said Mrs Mayers, adding: "My husband has not been back to see the house yet. He finds it very upsetting.

"I just think it is because of the fact the house is not hospitable. It's not safe to go back in. We've lost everything.

"Now we will just pick ourselves up and get on with it. What else can you do? You've got to be positive about this, what's the sense in worrying? OK I'm upset but when its put back it will be lovely."

The couple are planning on moving into their son Tim's nearby accommodation whilst repairs are completed because they have yet to find a holiday let for the three to four months they require.

■ FIREMEN with breathing apparatus prepare to go into the burning building in Cobb Road

Tim said his mother was upset and coping with it but his father was not coping so well, adding: "They are bound to be upset. It's the family possessions that have gone for good.

"He's quite upset about it all and as for myself coming here, it's quite a shock to see it like this."

If you know of a property in the town that Mr and Mrs Mayers can rent for the next four months, please contact the View From Lyme Regis on 01297 446152.

Shelters contract signed

SIGN HERE: The Mayor of Lyme Regis, Councillor Michaela Ellis, and town clerk Mike Lewis add their signatures to the contracts for the regeneration of the Marine Parade shelters.

The work on enhancing the seafront construction, due to start in September, is one of the biggest projects undertaken by Lyme Regis Town Council since it came into being in 1974 when local government was reorganised.

The contract for £1.1 million is with the Taunton family building firm of C.S. Williams Limited. The initial price has been raised through the council borrowing £500,000 from West Dorset District Council, town council reserves built up over a number of years and grants from various funders, including £86,000 from the Dorset Chalk and Cheese fund.

The work will start on September 6th and be completed by next May in time for the 2011 season.

Theatre's new creative director

THE Marine Theatre in Lyme Regis has appointed a new creative director.

Mr Phil Whitehead, who has a background in education and the arts, will take over from Ian Stephens, who is leaving at the end of this month.

Mr Whitehead (pictured) progressed through primary school headship and local education authority advisory work before becoming head of teacher education at Oxford Brookes University, where he set up and led the successful undergraduate Performing Arts,

Community and Education Programme.

He has a lifelong interest in the arts, both as a performer and manager.

Mr Whitehead lives locally with his young family and has already become involved with the Marine Theatre through his daughter's commitment to Lyme Youth Theatre.

He said: "This is a fantastic opportunity to build on the trust's and Ian's vision for the Marine Theatre."

"I want to work with the Town Mill, Lyme Regis Museum, the schools and other local organisations to continue the transformation in arts and culture that I have seen grow apace in the 10 years we have been visiting Lyme and the region."

"My mantra will be 'something for everyone'. I want to see full houses with audiences spilling out onto Lyme's streets with the buzz of pleasure and enjoyment that comes from great shows."

Chairman of the LymeArts Community Trust, John Bartholomew, added: "We were all extremely impressed with Phil's energy and enthusiasm. He brings a very wide prospectus of experience and, I know, will commend himself to the people of this town very quickly."

New headteacher at St Michael's

MEET the new headmistress at St Michael's Primary School in Lyme Regis.

Annabelle Gross has previously worked at Little-town Primary School in Honiton, Branscombe and Charmouth Primary Schools, before moving to a three-school campus in Whitleigh, Plymouth.

She will officially take on the role as head teacher at St Michael's in September, following the retirement of Chris Tozer, who has worked at the school for 19 years.

Mrs Gross has already visited St Michael's to acquaint herself with the pupils, staff and governors and says she is looking forward to new appointment in September.

CHARITY HOSTS: Maralyn Hinxman, Felicity Horton, Julie Renfrew and Liz Scott

■ GARDEN PARTY: Coffee and cake was served to guests in Mr and Mrs Horton's garden.

Neighbours organise summer event for service charity

NEXT-DOOR neighbours in Charmouth raised £2,500 for a charity helping limbless ex-servicemen.

Maralyn and Malcolm Hixman and Felicity and Tony Horton welcomed about 60 guests into their homes in Double Common, Charmouth, on Friday.

Felicity and Tony served morning coffee and a selection of cakes in their attractive walled garden. Maralyn and Malcom then hosted lunch followed by evening canapés and Pimm's.

The couples were helped by co-organisers Liz Scott and Julie Renfrew.

The money raised will be donated to the British Limbless Ex-Service Men's Association (BLESMA), which has two care homes in Blackpool and Crieff, Perthshire, as well as offering at-home care services to those who have lost their limbs.

Mrs Hinxman, who is also chairman of the Lyme Regis branch of Save the Children, explained that BLESMA needs £2 million a year to operate but is not very well known, despite being established over 75 years ago.

Mr and Mrs Hinxman's son served in Afghanistan, which added to their desire to raise money for an Armed Forces-based charity.

Mrs Hinxman added: "I couldn't just sit back and do nothing. I am hoping to highlight this charity for others to take on board."

Book swap for Charmouth literary festival

BOOK lovers are invited to share their old reads with others to support the Charmouth Literary Festival.

The book swap event will be held from 10am to 4pm on Saturday, July 10th at Greengates on Lower Sea Lane, Charmouth, opposite the Hensleigh Hotel.

Donations of one or more enjoyable books are welcome, with suggested topics being fiction, personal development or self-help, about writing and publishing, local interest or teenagers' or children's books. Comment about the book can be made on a post-it note on the front cover.

The book swap will be open to all, including those who haven't donated, and there is a suggested price of 50p or £1 for each book.

Money raised will go towards keeping the Charmouth Literary Festival, to be held on Saturday, October 16th, free to the public.

Teas, coffees and soft drinks will also be served and there will be new books written by local authors on sale.

Parking is available on St Andrew's Drive, Charmouth Beach and on the main street.

Jazz anniversary goes with a swing

■ OFFICIALLY OPEN: The Mayor, Councillor Michaela Ellis, shows crowds the Jazz Festival programme before opening the event

THE streets of Lyme Regis were filled with music last weekend as the town celebrated the 20th anniversary of the annual Jazz Festival.

The Mayor of Lyme Regis, Councillor Michaela Ellis, officially opened the "Jurassic Jazz" festival at Cobb Gate on Friday afternoon, alongside town crier Phil Street.

Gerry Brown and the Mission Hall Band then entertained crowds before the Woodroffe School Jazz Band gave a performance in the Marine Theatre. They were followed by star of the weekend, the internationally renowned Kenny Ball and his Jazzmen, who were also celebrating 50 years since first hitting the charts.

Words and photos by Francesca Evans

There was no need for umbrellas on the hot and sunny Saturday morning, but decorated brollies filled Broad Street for the annual parade.

The colourful procession was led by the upbeat Louisiana Parade Band with marshal Val Chambers and town crier Phil Street. They were followed by the Mayor, accompanied by her husband-consort Alan, daughter Kelsey and deputy mayoress Christine Lovell.

The parade stopped to listen to the band at Cobb Gate and the Marine Parade shelters, before finishing outside Jane's Café on the Cart Road, where the Mayor judged the decorated umbrellas.

orated umbrellas.

Rita Hooper won the prize for the best adults entry. Marie Wren won first place in the children's category, with Sophie Smith coming in second and Sophie Cuthbertson in third. All children who had taken part were then given a free ice cream from the Ice Cream Dream kiosk.

In the afternoon, Jazz Festival organiser Pat Kennils presented an engraved glass tumbler to Tony Langford, who was performing with the Coly River Jazz Band at the Masonic Hall.

Mr Kennils and Mr Langford co-founded the festival in 1991, with Tony funding the project. The glass was engraved "Lyme Regis Jazz Festival 1991 - 2010" with a picture of a fossil and the Cobb.

Entertainment continued for the rest of the weekend, including performances from Tony Carter, the Excelsior Vintage Jazz Band and Tiger Tim's Hot Four.

Over 100 guests gathered in St Michael's Parish Church on Sunday afternoon for a jazz gospel service with the Tim Eyres All Stars. The service included favourite hymns "Amazing Grace", "The Old Rugged Cross" and "When the Saints Go Marching In".

The Reverend Stephen Skinner gave a short address and the Reverend Jane Skinner, who will be licensed at St Michael's on July 23rd, led the prayers.

Organiser John Fry said: "In my personal view and from the comments we have received the festival went very well. As the final concert didn't finish until midnight on Sunday, we don't have the final figures yet but there should be enough to hold another festival next year."

The Jazz Festival has already made donations to local charity the LymZim Link and to St Michael's Parish Church. Further donations will be made if there is a surplus profit.

Mr Fry added: "This year we introduced the gospel service at the church and that went down very well. The new Vicar, the Reverend Jane Skinner, has already booked it for next year."

"We also had a good collection at the parade and the public were very generous."

Gerry Brown and the Mission Hall Band performed on Sunday evening and invited Woodroffe School Jazz Band saxophonist Ben Kapur to join them on stage for the last four numbers.

They were up to the Charmouth Challenge

OVER 400 runners took part in Charmouth's biggest fundraising event in aid of the local primary school.

The gruelling eight-mile Charmouth Challenge, including a 191 metre climb up Golden Cap, and 2.5-mile fun run took place in glorious sunshine on Saturday afternoon, making it hot and difficult conditions for the runners.

■ VETERAN RUNNER: 23 times London Marathon runner Chris Howell, 76, sets off on the challenge an hour before his competitors

by Francesca Evans

The event raised an estimated £4,500 for Charmouth Primary School boosting the total made in the past 19 years to £60,000.

Just over 230 people took part in the main challenge. Veteran runner 76-year-old Chris Howell, from London, set off an hour earlier than his competitors and finished the course in 2 hours 49 minutes. Mr Howell is a member of the 23 Mile Running Club and has taken part in 24 London Marathons.

Stuart Leaney took first place in 52 minutes. He was followed a minute later by Tom Fisher from Avon Valley Runners and in third place was Philip Egerton from Abingdon Amblers AC in 56 minutes.

The first woman across the finishing line was Lin Lascelles from Maiden Newton Runners, who finished the course in 1 hour 4 minutes, putting her in 28th place.

The fun run had 187 entrants and it was a close race with just seconds between first, second and third places.

Matthew Pile completed the course in 18 minutes 12 seconds, closely followed by Kingsley Wellman in 18 minutes 45 seconds and Cameron Souter-Frost just three seconds later.

Rebecca Carver from Wells City Harriers was the first girl to finish. She was put in ninth place having completed the course in 20 minutes.

The annual Charmouth Primary School fete kept runners entertained before the races. The fete was opened by Lyme Regis town crier Phil Street and included a barbecue, bouncy castle, cream teas, football games and a variety of stalls.

Organiser Nick Bale said: "The event was hugely successful. The weather held up and everything ran smoothly. The total we raised is just up on last year.

"We didn't break any records this year but the winner finished comfortably. I told him that he had to gain four minutes to beat the current record and he said 'no problem', so we might have a record breaker next time."

■ AND THEY'RE OFF: The fun runners set out on the 2.5-mile course

Tunnel becomes Olympic standard shooting range

by Francesca
Evans

A NEW Olympic standard rifle range opened in the old Charmouth Tunnel this week following 10 months of construction.

The Tunnel Target Sports Centre includes 25 and 50-metre rifle ranges, a gun shop and café with indoor and outdoor seating. Planning permission is currently being sought to add a 100-metre range outside.

The bright and modern rifle range has been approved by the National Shooting Centre in Bisley, which was the closest high-standard rifle range until the Charmouth Tunnel opened on Monday.

Owner and local businessman Richard Clist emphasised that safety was a high priority. The tunnel has been fitted with a high-tech security system recommended by Dorset Police.

Mr Clist, a keen marksman himself, said the centre could be used for high-standard shooting competitions. He hopes it will soon be given Centre of Excellence status and be used as an Olympic training facility.

"It will bring a huge amount of people to the surrounding area, who will need accommodation and will want to visit Lyme Regis and Charmouth. It will be great for the local economy," he said.

Mr Clist originally wanted to use the abandoned tunnel for offices but was told he could either use it for storage or a rifle range. He was given planning permission in May last year and work began in September.

He added: "I've been shooting for years but never been involved in these types of facilities before. We've taken the bull by the horns, invested the money and hope to provide the highest standard facilities."

Mr Clist plans to hold an official opening ceremony within the next month.

Membership is not necessary at the Tunnel Target Sports Centre. Those with no experience can have a go and will be given a tutorial and supervised by a range safety officer. The café is also open to everyone.

The centre can be accessed from the A35 between Raymond's Hill and Charmouth. It will be open six days a week from 10am and closed on Wednesdays for private bookings, training sessions and group visits.

Victorian cooking at the museum

LYME Regis Museum is offering a chance to taste Victorian recipes and buy the delicious cakes, biscuits and preserves made from them.

The tasting and cake sale will run alongside a talk by Felicity Hebditch called "From Clouted Cream to Penny a Lick", based on Victorian food with a display of old-fashioned kitchen utensils.

The event will be held this Saturday (July 10th) from 2pm.

Other events held by the museum in July will include regular Mary Anning walks with professional tour guide Natalie Manifold, which will explore the old streets of Lyme as famous fossil hunter Mary would have known them.

There will also be a variety of talks, with topics ranging from Jane Austen to Lyme's long connection with Bermuda.

On Sunday, July 25th John and Sandra Lello will give a piano recital and poetry reading at St Michael's Parish Church from 3.30pm, organised by the Friends of Lyme Regis Museum.

Fossil experts Paddy Howe and Chris Andrew will also be holding regular fossil hunting walks and "Know Your Fossil" talks throughout July.

For a full programme of events, contact the museum on 01297 443370, email info@lymeregismuseum.co.uk or visit the museum's website www.lymeregismuseum.co.uk.

Theatre says thanks to volunteers

A PARTY was held to honour the hard work of volunteers at the Marine Theatre in Lyme Regis.

Trustees of LymeArts Community Trust, which manages the theatre, invited their volunteers to join them for an evening reception at the Marine.

The volunteers take on several different roles at the theatre. Each performance requires people to run front of house and the coffee bar, as well as someone to distribute promotional flyers.

Other volunteers chaperone Youth Theatre classes and help with maintenance of the theatre.

The voluntary TheatreFriends also tirelessly fundraises to help make improvements to the Marine and arranges social gatherings.

Chairman of LymeArts Community Trust, John Bartholomew, said: "What a wonderful group of volunteers we have and we couldn't operate without them. Their enthusiasm and loyalty is highly valued and appreciated."

The theatre is keen to hear from anyone who would like to join the volunteers.

If interested, contact volunteer co-ordinator Monika Henshaw at the theatre office on 01297 442394 or email volunteers@marinetheatre.com for further information.

PLASTIC CARDS • ID CARDS • MEMBERSHIP CARDS • PAYMENT

Advanced Card assures your ID!!!

BRIDPORT based Advanced Card Bureau (ACB) has responded proactively to the recent growth in the requirement for Photo-ID cards. Few companies now fail to issue their employees with an ID card to assure their customers of the identity and qualifications of staff. This is vital to instil in customers the sense of security they require in order to allow workmen, repairmen or carers into their homes. ACB provides a rapid design & issue service – customers don't have to worry about designing and despatching of their own cards. ACB's fully inclusive service allows customers to deploy new staff quickly with assured identification.

Local organisations to whom Photo-ID cards are supplied by ACB include Bridport Town Council and the Bridport Medical Centre as well as local schools, Dorset Fire & Rescue Services and the NHS.

Arranging an ID card for staff can be simple. ACB's studio will design the card within a day and once the design is finalised cards for staff can be produced and within 24 hours. It is important that new staff have ID cards promptly.

If however a company wishes to issue its own cards internally or on site, ACB can also provide the systems to enable this. Friendly service and helpful staff will ensure the client gets the right product for their needs.

With Photo-ID card go the relevant supplies-cardholders to hold the badge and lanyards. Most of these are sold through its website (www.acb-ltd.com) and on Ebay where it has a busy Shop.

Bridport Based - National Coverage

ACB is a company firmly based in Bridport! Set up in 2001, it currently employs seven people, and is focussed mainly upon the issue and use of plastic cards for membership, loyalty schemes payment card and Photo-ID Cards.

ACB is a business with a national reach. As well as supplying in the past 18 months over 2 million plastic cards to a national chain of video rental stores it works extensively with local authorities and housing associations throughout the UK. Councils in Slough, Luton, North Tyneside use its services, as well as those more locally: West Dorset District Council and Magna Housing. The cards are used in the Post Office, PayPoint and Payzone outlets to make cash payments for council tax, rent and numerous miscellaneous services. The company supplies a number of other services including mailing of bills, statements and letters to these organisations.

As part of its expanding mailing and fulfilment services ACB has just invested in a second £50,000 mailing machine to increase its capacity and productivity.

Managing director Ian Johnson and co-director Philip Hussey believe that although the business has grown nationally it can offer a lot more to local business. In pursuance of this it has set up new website (and company) BridportPlasticCards.com which will help to market its services in a more effective way to businesses in this area.

The company attributes its success to its personal approach to service, to its quality, speed of response and completion of jobs. All of its services and products are available through its website: www.acb-ltd.com.

Recent additions to its product line include environmentally friendly plastic cards made of biodegradable and recyclable pvc, and plastic cards which can peel out of an A4 sheet of paper. It supplies memory cards and contactless cards used for access control systems. For promotional purposes, fridge magnets which can be printed with the holders photo and personal details are another innovation ACB have brought to the card market.

ACB intends to continue to grow though innovation, offering the prospect of increased employment and prosperity to Bridport.

CARDS • LOYALTY CARDS • LEAFLET / BOOKLET MAILINGS

Membership & Loyalty Cards

WITH the expansion of companies offering membership and loyalty schemes ACB provides membership cards and loyalty cards. With a complete in-house design service it can assist in getting a loyalty or membership scheme up and running smoothly.

These cards need to have the holder's details embossed and encoded onto the magnetic stripe on the reverse of the card. Working closely with marketing agencies ACB has the capacity to mail out the cards with other information directly to the holders, saving time for the loyalty card promoters.

ACB has helped design and supplied the membership cards used by the Bridport Leisure Centre.

Print management and Mailings

MANY companies and organisations think that what it deems small mailings are unattractive to mailing houses and better done in house.

ACB's growth has resulted from demonstrating that it is much more effective to pass these to specialists in mailing, so the motto is no mailing too small.

A requirement for quick mailings has been a feature of the market recently. ACB's Electronic Rapid Mailing service meets this demand. In one instance despatched a mailing of over 6000 letters on the same day that it received the mailing data from its client.

ACB designs, arranges the print and despatches newsletters brochures and booklets for its customers. It has a contract with one of the larger print management companies in the UK to despatch letters and packages. It works very closely with Royal Mail but offers lower cost services through third party mailers such as UKMail, CitiPost and TNT. Useful in keeping down postal costs.

ACB acquires AukPay Ltd

ACB has recently acquired a controlling interest in AukPay Ltd, a Hereford based company, which provides payment collection services to local authorities and social landlords.

For the local authority and social housing market AukPay Ltd, has developed a unique product PCP which, using barcode technology, is specifically designed to enable cost effective collection of cash payments for such services as parking permits, repairs, etc indeed any service for which payments are required.

AukPay is continuing to develop this product with an international high street bank and looks forward to releasing major updates in the near future.

Harbourmaster joins lifeboat crew

HARBOURMASTER Grahame Forshaw MBE has joined Lyme Regis lifeboat crew as a deputy launching authority.

His new role will involve taking charge of the operation when the lifeboat is launched to respond to emergency calls.

Grahame, 51, from Rousdon, became harbourmaster in March 2009 when he retired as a warrant officer after 33 years of military service with the Royal Marines.

He served in conflicts in the Falklands, Iraq, Afghanistan, Northern Ireland, Cyprus and Bosnia.

Grahame was also the Royal Navy's chief sailing coach and is co-author of the Royal Yachting Association's Safety Boat Handbook, as well as writing for yachting magazines.

In 2001 he was awarded the MBE for services to sailing.

The harbourmaster's office is right next to the lifeboat station on the Cobb, which means Grahame will often be first to respond to a shout.

He said: "I am absolutely thrilled to be joining the RNLI volunteers in Lyme Regis.

"I am looking forward to the challenge and to striking a rapport with everyone involved."

Lyme Regis Lifeboat Operations Manager, Rob Fossett, said: "We are delighted to welcome Grahame aboard. Having the harbourmaster in the team will be a great asset."

YOUTH music project B Sharp! can continue its work around Lyme Regis after being awarded over £14,000 from different organisations.

The B Sharp! project – part of Lyme Youth Arts – received £10,000 from the West Dorset Partnership and a further £3,000 from Grassroots Grants, which helps small voluntary and community groups to tackle need and disadvantage in their area.

This £13,000 will be used for 'Peer to Peer', a project where B Sharp! trainees work with six new youth groups, leading workshops themselves using the skills they have learnt over the past three years with B Sharp! professional music leaders.

The trainees have already been booked to work with Bridport County and St Mary's Primary Schools, supported by musician John Miles.

A further £1,000 was awarded to B Sharp! members Greg Walters and Dom Kirtley for percussion equipment and stage and technical support for an outdoor summer event.

Lyme Regis Town Council also gave the group £800 as part of their annual local organisation grants.

The Regional Educational Legacy in Arts and Youth Sport (RELAYS) has commissioned B Sharp! to perform at the Eden Project Biennale in September after being impressed with their performances during Lyme Regis Fossil Festival in May.

The group will also lead a workshop in the dome.

Regular music workshops have begun again, being held every Tuesday from 6:30pm to 8:30pm at Lyme Regis Powerboat Club on Monmouth Beach. All young musicians are welcome to attend and will be able to perform at the Eden Project. In particular, the group are looking for singers and brass players.

B Sharp! is also inviting young people aged between 16 and 25 who would like to become a trainee, as well as those who want to be peer mentors and work alongside trainees.

Project leader Fran Williams said: "We have lots of opportunities for young people who want to develop their existing skills, not only within music – we also have work experience opportunities for artists, reporters, photographers, film makers, visual jockeys and more."

• Peter Early - Smart Alarms

Everyone is more security conscious these days, and that should be a good starting base for a new Bridport business.

Peter Early, an engineer with specialist experience in security systems, aims to make life safer and more relaxing for business owners - and save them money.

He has teamed up with Lde whose 'SmartAlarms' system is used throughout the UK, providing 24 hour, 365 days a year security to scores of companies.

The system is based on their sophisticated CCTV equipment and software which can be, and is, used in any situation, in virtually any business, national, international and local. Banks of monitors at the National Monitoring Centre alert staff night or day of any sign of trouble.

'Whatever the business and wherever based, protection against crime, fire and incident is a growing problem,' says Peter. 'Appreciating the threat and realising they are not properly protected, more and more businesses are assessing their security needs.'

'SmartAlarms' is the easy, economic answer. We do all the work, and take away all the worry. We survey the site, install and maintain a state-of-the-art security system that constantly captures and records every movement on site. The system filters out non-threatening events - rabbits, cats and foxes can trigger alarm systems - picking up only real causes for alarm. No having to search for what triggered the alarm - the image is the alarm, and the alarm is the image.

Immediate, personal - not automated - action follows with verified direct calls to the company contact, police and other services. Whether it's a gang on a big money job netting thousands or individuals 'on the make', our system beats them', he adds.

Peter, aged 37, lives in Bridport with wife Rebecca, baby son Jacob and their Mollie the collie. On leaving school he served a five-year apprenticeship with an electrical installation company, then worked in a 24-hour-team for a firm installing alarms in domestic and business premises in south west England.

In 2000, after completing a Sound Broadcast Engineering degree, he joined Marconi Communications. He has also been technical support engineer for a wireless communication company, head of customer support for a firm dealing with equipment failures throughout Europe and account manager for a global component distributor.

'I've been wanting to start my own business for a long time,' he said,

- 'something in my line, interesting, and rewarding personally and financially.'

Now I have a business that uses all my technical, management, sales and customer service skills. There is great potential, with a wide range of businesses in my territory, and I know we can provide a first-class service.

With our help, company owners can relax and sleep more easily at night, knowing their business and property is being so well guarded.'

Summer's here already!

WELCOME back to my Summertime in Lyme column. Over the next two months I'll be filling you in on all the summer news and events, which help make Lyme Regis such a popular holiday spot.

I was glad to get home just in time for the start of the summer season. I finished the second year of my journalism degree in Southampton a few weeks ago and then headed to London for a week of work experience at the Daily Mirror.

Getting a taste of working at a national newspaper in the capital was an exciting experience. I was even lucky enough to get a free day out at Wimbledon and, in true summer spirit, enjoyed strawberries and cream on Henman Hill.

Despite the free days out, I can't imagine spending my summer anywhere else than by the seaside. So my camera and I are ready to cover all the upcoming events... and there will be plenty to choose from.

The town is already starting to get busy and will soon be packed-out for this season's biggest events, Lifeboat Week, which starts later this month, and Regatta and Carnival Week in August.

♦ If you have an event or news you would like to promote in this column, please phone me on 01297 446155 or email francesca@pemedial.co.uk.

A good excuse to buy a new dress!

I'M looking forward to this weekend as it's Lyme Regis Football Club's presentation night with special guest, former West Ham and England striker Tony Cottee.

Tony was the guest speaker at a sporting dinner my Dad organised last year and as patron of the club for our 125th anniversary year Tony agreed to come back to Lyme for the annual bash.

The annual dinner and awards always turns out to be a good night and this year the club has one of its most successful seasons ever to celebrate.

It also gives us "WAGs" an excuse to buy a new dress! I'll have Saturday to recover before switching my high heels for trainers and running the 5KM Race For Life in Exeter, in aid of Cancer Research UK, on Sunday.

I'm not exactly a fitness freak. In fact, my family would agree I like everything that's bad for me a little too much (trait of a true Evans, says Dad). But over the past few weeks I've been jogging around the flattest route I could find in Lyme to prepare myself.

If anyone would like to sponsor me, visit www.raceforlifespensorme.org/chezzie-evans. I'll let you know how it goes next week.

EVENT OF THE WEEK

LYME loves a good parade and the Jazz Festival's decorated umbrella procession is top of the list for putting you in a cheerful mood.

The umbrellas certainly weren't needed in Saturday's perfect weather, but they looked bright and colourful as they danced down Broad Street led by lady marshal Val Chambers, town crier Phil Street and the upbeat Louisiana Parade Band.

I think the Jazz Festival organising committee tried extra hard this year, selling rainbow umbrellas to passers-by who wanted to take part, and handing out Mardi Gras style beads to everyone involved.

It's my favourite parade of the year and definitely event of the week.

Well done to John Fry and all the festival organisers and I hope there are many more to come.

5 things to do this weekend

1 Support you local! – Soak up the sunshine at the Talbot Arms Beer Festival in Uplyme. The weekend event will include live entertainment from the Uplyme Morris Men, Three Counties Swing Band and Papa Le Gal, screening of the British Grand Prix and World Cup final, a hog roast and skittles (most entertainment on Sunday).

2 Trace Mary Anning's footsteps – Professional tour guide Natalie Manifold will be exploring old Lyme, the way famous fossil hunter Mary would have seen it from 3.30pm on Saturday, organised by Lyme Regis Museum (booking advisable).

3 Learn to row – Lyme Regis Gig Club will be holding a taster session at 11.30am on Sunday. For more information or to book your place, email Henry Barlow at henrybarlow@google-mail.com

4 Watch the World Cup final – So England didn't make it, but get in the summer spirit, have a barbecue with friends and watch the football. If you don't fancy hosting, there's plenty of pubs around Lyme that will be screening the big game.

5 Enjoy a spot of music – Lyme Regis Town Band will be holding one of their popular Sunday afternoon concerts in the Marine Parade shelters from 2.30pm.

■ DON'T forget to buy your Lifeboat Week programmes, now available around the town for £1.50.

VIEW NEWS IN BRIEF

■ POLICE seized ten cannabis plants from a house in North Avenue, Lyme Regis, following a tip-off.

PC Richard Winward said he received information that cannabis was being grown at the address some time ago. At 9pm on Monday evening PC Winward and PCSO Luke White searched the vehicle linked to the address and, as a result of this search, visited the house and seized ten plants from the back garden.

The female resident was interviewed at Lyme Regis Police Station the following day.

■ A LYME Regis resident has warned of foxes in the area after one tried to climb through her window.

Penelope Roques of Fairfield Park was shocked to find a fox climbing through her open window at about 3am on Thursday morning.

The unusual hissing and growling from her cat woke her up and warned her of the unexpected intruder.

Mrs Roques believes the fox jumped from a garden table to a low roof to get to her window.

In light of the recent news that a fox attacked nine-month-old twins, Lola and Isabella Koupparis, in London, Mrs Roques wanted to warn of the risk in the local area.

She said: "It wouldn't have attacked me but there may be others at risk."

■ COASTGUARDS estimate that 8,000 tonnes of rocks and debris fell in the latest major landslide near Charmouth.

Lyme Regis Coastguards were asked to investigate the landslide 300 metres east of Charmouth on Friday, July 2nd.

A group of onlookers gathered in the area and some had started climbing on the slip whilst it was still falling. No one was hurt.

The cliff was taped off and warning signs were erected.

The coastguards estimated that about 8,000 tonnes fell within a matter of minutes and a further 6,000 tonnes is expected to fall over the next few days.

Coastguards warned: "Please keep well away from this cliff fall. The day before a member of the public and his son had been fossilling at this exact spot. The father had an angry exchange when he was advised of the risks. If he had been in the same place following yesterday's fall, the situation would have been very grave indeed."

■ OVER 30 beers and ciders plus a range of live entertainment will be on offer at the Talbot Arms Beer Festival this weekend.

Landlords Steve and Wendy Gardner welcome everyone to the annual two-day festival, which will be open all day on Saturday, June 10th and Sunday, June 11th.

The main entertainment will take place on Sunday, including the Uplyme Morris Men, Three Counties Swing Band and popular local musicians Papa Le Gal in the evening.

The pub will also be screening the British Grand Prix and the World Cup final, as well as offering skittles, a hog roast and a tombola organised by Lyme Regis Gig Club.

Battle of the sexes at Charmouth football match

♦ THE Ladies of Charmouth will be taking on the men in a charity football re-match this weekend.

Last year the girls came out on top thrashing the men 6-1, albeit by bending the rules to their own advantage.

This year the men will be itching to take revenge on the ladies team, made up of local girls, family members and the first team goalie in a wig and tutu.

The match will kick off at 3pm this Saturday, July 10th at the recreational ground in Barr's Lane.

Following the match there will be a charity auction at The George, both events raising money for the football club.

Traditional Café at the heart of Bridport that caters for all

Joint business partners TJ and Shirley would like to make everyone in West Dorset aware that they are proud to regard themselves as one of the last standing 'traditional style' cafés in the area. You can pop into Café Royal in Tannery Road, Bridport for a slap up all day Breakfast or freshly battered cod and chips at any hour of the day and feel completely relaxed, be yourself and watch the world go by. TJ joined up with Shirley 7 years ago at the helm of the business with a vision to keep the retro feel of the business as close to that you would have experienced in café/diners in the 50's and 60's. They have moved with the times somewhat but feel that with more and more modern, downsized up-market outlets opening in towns all over, it will be a shame to loose the traditional style cafe altogether.

The many large windows flood plenty of sunlight into this airy, spacious café that boasts additional features in a Juke Box, Pool Table and children's play pen. It is large enough to cater for parties of 30-40 people and often does when coaches stop in the station opposite.

Children's parties have also been held at Café Royal as they love the kid's meals for £2 and there is a large penny sweet counter that the kids are very fond of.

For more information call TJ or Shirley on 01308 422012 or just pop by to enjoy the relaxed atmosphere at the café Royal.

There is something for everybody, for any age and any budget. The ethos of Melbury Gallery lies in ethical trading wherever possible as well as providing customers with unique items which will reflect personal style and individuality.

The clothing range embraces beautiful fluid styling, natural and colourful fabrics, which can also be flattering to the larger figure, whilst remaining both distinctive and fashionable. The collection is casual and professional, with fun colours and a quirky edge.

There is a vast range of jewellery from fun and funky to individual silver pieces from both British and worldwide designers. It is an Aladdin's Cave which draws regular customers from far and wide. Stock is constantly evolving and changing due to popular demand and so the shop is worth visiting on a regular basis.

Thelma and her dedicated team look forward to welcoming you to a Melbury shopping experience!

Tea and history anyone?

The Duke of Monmouth landed at Lyme Regis on the 11th June 1685 to challenge King James' claim to the throne, following the death of Charles II. He assembled an army in excess of 3,000 men and marched to Sedgemoor in Somerset.

He was defeated by the King's army in less than a month. Around 1300 were taken prisoner. Five Judges came to Dorchester with the infamous Judge Jeffreys, whose reputation was that of the 'hanging judge'.

In September 1685, 312 cases were heard in the Oakroom at the rear of the Antelope Hotel; of these 292 were sentenced to death. Only 74 were executed, with 175 transported, 9 were fined or whipped and 54 were discharged.

Judge Jeffreys - having his eye on promotion - was later made Lord Chancellor.

When King James fell and William of Orange landed in Torbay, Jeffreys was captured and imprisoned in the Tower of London. He died in 1689 while awaiting trial, probably of natural causes.

Rumours at the time said he has been poisoned while in the Tower and that his body had been returned to Dorchester and walled up in the Courtroom - now the Oakroom.

This 17th Century Oak panelled room has been carefully restored to maintain its character and original features.

Today it is called The Oakroom and is a delightful tearoom, with a peaceful, tranquil atmosphere, replicating the style and service of a Lyons Corner House. The Oakroom of today serves a variety of light meals throughout the day and service is a high priority. The staff at the Oakroom pride themselves on their high levels of customer service, creating a warm, homely atmosphere where you can enjoy lovely lunches and of course, Dorset clotted cream teas.

Friendly, flexible and approachable – just as your solicitor should be!

A law firm doesn't have to be stuffy. It can be friendly, flexible and approachable. that, says John Blackburn, is the philosophy that prompted him to set up Blackburn & Co in Trinity Street, Dorchester in January 2010.

Mr Blackburn, who qualified at Wedlake Saint solicitors in London in 1994, has built up a reputation for success in clinical negligence and personal injury claims.

John also has extensive experience in other areas of litigation, including disputes relating to commercial and consumer contracts, debts, trusts and property - having won a landlord and tenant dispute in the Court of Appeal.

Sian Merriott joined Blackburn & Co in May 2010 having been admitted as a solicitor in 1992. Sian has worked at various law firms where she has specialized in all areas of family law including divorce, ancillary relief (financial settlement on divorce) and Children Act 1989 applications. Sian is a member of both Resolution and the Law Society's Advanced Family Law Panel; she is also a trained Collaborative lawyer. Her approach to family matters is conciliatory if at all possible as she firmly believes that it is in both parties interests to reach agreement, especially if children are involved. However, Sian also has a great deal of court experience and will pursue the matter through the court if necessary to obtain the fairest outcome for her client.

Property conveyancing is another major element of the firm's work, undertaken by Sian Merriott and Gillian Philipps, a conveyancing executive. Gillian has been conveyancing in Dorset for more than 12 years, the last 8 of which have been spent on Portland working with clients from Lands End to Cumbria.

Mr Blackburn said he "established the firm because (he) felt the time was right for a particular sort of firm in Dorchester - an adaptable, forward-looking one which above all was not affected by any kind of historical inertia. We're also technologically advanced with state-of-the-art legal software, which means we can obtain information relating to a case at the touch of the button. In conveyancing some searches can be turned round within half an hour. This firm is small and responsive as well as friendly, and our approach is very different to that of a large, old-fashioned practice."

Save every time you buy... and now save even more with our SUMMER SALE!

Established in 1902 Goulds has developed into Dorset's foremost department store. Still an independent family run business, Goulds is proud of its enviable reputation of providing first class shopping facilities and a service to match for its high street customers and online shoppers alike. As a member of the Association of Independent Stores (AIS) we can offer a huge choice of leading brands combined with fantastic value.

Their new Simply Home department is well worth a visit with its inspirational collection of home furnishings including lamps, frames, cushions and glassware, all co-ordinated by colour themes. You will also find exciting and fashionable new bed linen ranges from V&A Sanderson, Bedeck and US Polo.

In our fashion store you will find our summer collections 2010, with beautiful new selections from Joules, Mexx, Fenn Wright Manson, Weird Fish, Great Plains, Olsen, Gerry Weber and Esprit.

Even better news is that our fantastic SUMMER SALE is now in full swing in both of our Dorchester stores.

Our Weymouth garden centre is also bursting into life with summer just around the corner. Here you will find a new cook shop department, as well as some great ideas for your garden. Growing your own fruit and vegetables is a great activity for the whole family and what better time to start but now. Goulds Garden Centre has everything you need, including helpful advice to start growing your own this year.

I should "pick" a fishy for my little dishy...

Billy the fish has been established in Dorchester for some time now and the people of the area have recognised his business as two sections, a Fish Monger on one side and quirky Sea Food restaurant on the other.

Recently Billy the Proprietor decided to combine the two and incorporate a significant fresh fish counter into the restaurant layout, giving his customers the chance to visually select their choice of fish and sit by and watch as it is prepared and cooked to their liking.

For example, why not pick and mix a fresh fish platter made up of prawns, scallops, calamari and lobster to be freshly prepared and served for a group of you to share.

You do not have to eat your pickings in the restaurant, the fresh fish counter operates as any other fish monger does and gives it's customers the opportunity to buy 'fruites de mer' over the counter and do the cooking bit at home or on the bbq.

The restaurant that Billy created now seats 36 and more if the venue is booked for private buffet parties. The business also has been known to cater for wedding parties, birthdays (with karaoke) and also special cook nights where you can (in small groups at a time) actually go into the kitchen and take part in the process of filleting and cooking the fish.

There are lunch and evening menus containing all fresh locally caught fish, meat and vegetarian options, vegetables which come, in particular, from Billy's father's allotment which adds to the friendly local feel of the business.

Lunch is served daily from 11-4pm and evening dinner from Thursday to Saturday from 7pm-late but Billy would like to make it clear that if you wish to book a table for an evening that is not advertised as open, the team will gladly open the restaurant to meet your needs. To book or make enquiries call 01305 757428 / 07709428389 or email billy.fresh@hotmail.co.uk 34,000 kilos of wild bird seed bought in Dorchester!

The Potting Shed Garden & Wild Bird Care Shop in Hardy Arcade, Dorchester was born out of buying an old garden shop called The Conservatory almost five years ago.

The joint owner, Shaun Samways, had previously spent the last twenty-five years working and managing garden centres around the South West of England and in Southern Ireland and was really keen to bring gardening back to the high street. There are vast numbers of people who just can't get to out-of-town garden centres but would still like access to the products that they sell.

A combination of good customer service and a large range of useful, everyday, gardening products along with some unusual and interesting products too provides a good gardening outlet for local people. The owners twenty-five years experience is not going to be wasted either with plenty of friendly, free helpful knowledge on hand as well.

The business is split into two halves, one being gardening the other being Wild Bird Care. The owners' life long passion for caring for wild birds started many years ago when feeding wild birds wasn't particularly fashionable. He recalls customers saying that he was mad to believe people would good spend money and buy special foods and feeders for wild birds when most just threw out old bread, biscuits crumbs and bacon rind. Well, last year the good people of Dorchester bought over 34,000 kilos of wild bird and over 4500 bird feeders of all shapes and sizes from The Potting Shed, which just goes to prove that a life long passion can bear fruit with perseverance.

Hopping down in Kent

IT MAY have been unbearably hot and I'm sure some festival-goers spent more time queuing for a beer than they did enjoying the music, but everyone who made the journey to Kent over the weekend for the Hop Farm Music Festival must have had a blast.

The festival, on the site of the former Whitbread Breweries farm, is only in its third year. It began as a one-day event in 2008 headlined by Neil Young and expanded to a two-day bash last year.

The 2009 event had a rather indie flavour with The Fratellis and Paul Weller headlining and supporting acts including Doves, Editors and Florence and the Machine. This year's event had a more of a folk feel about it, whilst the headliners - coming from an older generation - were bona fide legends.

Friday's entertainment was topped off by a rather dapper looking Van Morrison. Earlier in the day, Debbie Harry - who had celebrated her 65th birthday on Thursday - played a crowd-pleasing set with Blondie, whilst over in the Big Tent, Fleetwood Mac founder Peter Green proved he was still very much a guitar hero playing a set that featured three tunes from his old band.

Fairport Convention founder member Richard Thompson also played to a capacity crowd in the tent on the Friday, showing how one voice and a guitar is enough to captivate an audience if the man on stage is good enough.

Come Saturday, the crowd seemed to have doubled in size and the sun in its ferocity. The main stage line-up was one of the best you'll find at any festival this summer, with early highlights including new folk darling Laura Marling and her compatriots from the London folk scene, Mumford & Sons.

After a Kinks-filled set by Ray Davies came the hugely anticipated appearance of another Sixties legend - the event's main headliner, Bob Dylan.

Now Bob has a reputation for being a bit on the prickly side at the best of times, and you'd have been forgiven for worrying that Zimmerman might have come out and played the most obscure bunch of songs imaginable and not give a damn.

But Dylan knew a festival crowd wanted to hear the hits. And that's what he gave them. Sauntering on stage sporting a natty suit and a stylish Cordobés hat, Dylan and his tight band launched into 'Rainy Day Women #12 &35'. In fact three out of the opening four tracks came from Dylan's legendary 1996 record, Blonde On Blonde.

Of course, Dylan re-arranges many of his tunes to the extent they bare little resemblance to how they sounded on the album (they're his songs, so I guess he can play 'em how he likes) and his voice sounds more like a growl these days.

But anyone who sees that as reason for criticism is completely misunderstanding the whole Dylan live experience. You just soak up the history and the sheer magnitude of being in the presence of one the very few living musical icons.

There's no point checking up on recent set lists to see what he's playing - the songs change every night and anything could happen; you just go with the flow.

Come expecting the same man of 45 years ago and leave disappointed; come with an open mind to hear a man pushing 70 in the middle of a late flurry of creativity, and be transfixed.

After a sadly all too short show, which also featured material from far more recent albums as well as rarity 'Blind Willie McTell' for the anoraks, Dylan was back for an encore of a sing-a-long 'Like A Rolling Stone' and very appropriate 'Forever Young'. Old grouch? Dylan had a ball! And he can still play blues harp with the best of them.

Hop Farm prides itself on an ethos of no branding and no sponsorship but despite echoes of what festivals used to be about, it's certainly about making money as much as any other festival. Without splashing out seven quid on a programme, there's no way you can find out what time and stage your favourite act is playing (and, just to take the mick, all the times for the Big Tent were changed on Saturday anyway!).

NICE HAT | Bob Dylan sported a Cordobés this weekend... but where was his Leopard-Skin Pill-Box Hat?

for the Big Tent were changed on Saturday anyway!).

There were also draconian security measures on the size of bottle of water you could bring into the performance arena, even when soft drinks inside were at a premium, the queue for the standpipe offering free water was as long as the ones for bread after the Russian revolution, and all this when it was baking hot.

No, Hop Farm hasn't got everything right yet. But the music? They've certainly nailed that one... roll on 2011.

WEDMORE YOUNG FARMERS
TAKE DAIRY STOCK TITLE

A TEAM from Wedmore Young Farmers has taken the top award in this year's Melplash Agricultural Society's (MAS) Young Farmers Dairy Stock Judging Competition.

The event sponsored by Synergy Farm Health Ltd, Crewkerne and hosted by the Crutchley family in their new dairy at Marsh Farm, Nettlecombe, attracted ten teams from Dorset and Somerset.

Mark Roberts, the organiser of the event said: "It was particularly gratifying to have so many junior teams this year with an even split between the genders; these young stockjudges are the farmers, herd managers and milkers of the future."

The annual MAS stockjudging competition is a team event, with teams of two in each age group. This year teams from Beamminster, Marshwood, Wedmore and Wells and Glastonbury YFC's were represented.

This year's judge John Westaway, formerly the Senior Classifier for the Holstein Society with responsibility for grading daily pedigree cattle and who judges at shows all round the country, assessed around 60 traits in deciding the winner.

The Wedmore Seniors team of Katie Nicholls (90) and James Hector (71) were the overall winners with a score of 161 and won the Francis W Hunt Cup, whilst Katie also won the Tom Creed Cup as the best individual.

Kirsty Fox of Marshwood Vale Juniors won the Best Newcomer Tankard. The results:

Juniors [4 dairy cows judged]

1st : Wells and Glastonbury (Natalie Hill 84 / Rachel Churches 68)	152
2nd: Wedmore A (Edward Bennett 69/ Ellie Stevens47)	116
3rd : Wedmore B (Brandon Willcox 58/ Karl Hooper 56)	114

Intermediates [6 dairy cows judged]

1st : Wells and Glastonbury (Andrew Churches 87/ Oli Hill 69)	156
---	-----

2nd : Wedmore (Claire Willcox 77/ Jack Nicholls 75) 152

Seniors [6 dairy cows judged]

1st: Wedmore (Katie Nicholls 90/ James Hector 71) 161

AWARDS

Francis W Hunt Cup (Best Team Overall): Wedmore Seniors
Runners up Shields: Wells and Glastonbury Inters and Wells and Glastonbury Juniors

Tom Creed Cup (Best Individual): Katie Nicholls (Wedmore Seniors)
Best Newcomer Tankard: Kirsty Fox (Marshwood Vale Juniors)

The whole purpose of stockjudging within YFC's is to train the competitors to look for and assess the type traits that are beneficial for long lasting, healthy cows that will also produce plenty of milk.

Each breed society produces a "True Type Model" which is the ideal cow, and competitors need to bear this in mind as they assess each animal. The competitors will be looking for the functional traits such as good legs and feet leading to good locomotion, a well attached udder with enough width and height to hold the high milk yields expected from modern cows, with body capacity sufficient to support the milk and a growing calf.

Each team is asked to assess a pen of dairy cows and to place them in order and give verbal reasons for their decisions to the master judge who marks them, using a complex marking system, on accuracy of observation and comparisons.

After all competitors have given their reasons, the judge will return to the cattle and announce his placings and the reasons why he placed them in that order. The competitors are always keen to find out if they agreed!

Colour and diversity impressive in Melplash garden competition

ALTHOUGH entries for this year's Melplash Show Garden Competition were down, the society's horticultural section chairman Clifford Pitcher was impressed by the standard.

The annual competition, which once again provided an opportunity for gardeners in the area to gain recognition for their gardens, was divided into three categories, large, medium and small, and was judged by last year's overall winner, and winner of the large garden category, Mr Brian Prentice of Litton Cheney, together with Mr Philip Symes.

This year's overall winner was Mike and Anne Rogers of Nursery Gardens, Bridport which won them the Alfie Parker and Jimmy Watts Memorial Cup presented by AJC Palmer, Esq and CWR Palmer, Esq. They also won the Pitcher Trophy, presented by Mr and Mrs C Pitcher as the best Medium Garden.

Winner of the Large Garden and Fowler Rose Bowl, presented by Mr and Mrs David Fowler, were Norman and Eileen Rabetts from Mosterton.

The Small Garden award went to Jon Harvey of Bridport who won the Melplash Show Agricultural Society Shield.

Mr Pitcher said: "I look forward to the garden competition every year. It is a privilege to see the results of local gardeners' hours of hard work, this year not helped by the late season. The colour and diversity of all the gardens was really impressive and judging was as difficult as ever. I would like to congratulate the winners and thank all of those that entered this year's competition, and take the opportunity to urge more of you to take up the challenge next year. My grateful thanks also go to the judges who gave up their time and took on the difficult task of choosing the winners."

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

ARE you a dreamer? Edmond Postand once asked, "What is life, without a dream?" But, in his famous poem "If", Kipling reminded us that you should not make dreams your master. Louise Driscoll, an American poet who died in 1957, gave us this advice.

Hold Fast Your Dreams

Hold fast your dreams!
Within your heart
Keep one still, secret spot
Where dreams may go,
And sheltered so, may thrive and grow
Where doubt and fear are not.
O keep a place apart,
Within your heart,
For little dreams to go!

Think still of lovely things that are not true.
Let wish and magic work at will in you.
Be sometimes blind to sorrow. Make believe!
Forget the calm that lies
In disillusioned eyes.

Though we all know that we must die,
Yet you and I

May walk like gods and be
Even now at home in immortality.

We see so many ugly things-
Deceits and wrongs and quarrelling's;
We know, alas! we know

How quickly fade
The colour in the west,
The bloom upon the flower,
The bloom upon the breast
And youth's blind hour.
Yet keep within your heart
A place apart
Where little dreams may go,
May thrive and grow,
Hold fast - hold fast your dreams!

JOHN Boyle O'Reilly was born in Ireland at the time of the Great Famine. He became a militant republican and, for his sins, he was transported to Western Australia. However, he managed to escape from there to the United States and later became the editor of a Boston newspaper. He always remained a campaigner for Irish independence but rejected trying to achieve it by violent means. He became so revered in Boston that when he died, in 1890, the city put up a bronze monument in his honour. This is one of his poems.

The Cry of a Dreamer

I am tired of planning and toiling
In the crowded hives of men;
Heart-weary of building and spoiling,
And spoiling and building again.

And I long for the dear old river,
Where I dreamed my youth away;
For a dreamer lives forever,
And a toiler dies in a day.

I am sick of the showy seeming
Of a life that is half a lie;
Of the faces lined with scheming
In the throng that hurries by.
From the sleepless thoughts' endeavour,
I would go where the children play;
For a dreamer lives forever,
And a thinker dies in a day.

I can feel no pride, but pity
For the burdens the rich endure;
There is nothing sweet in the city
But the patient lives of the poor.
Oh, the little hands too skilful
And the child mind choked with weeds!
The daughter's heart grown wilful,
And the father's heart that bleeds!

No, no! from the street's rude bustle,
From trophies of mart and stage,
I would fly to the woods' low rustle
And the meadows' kindly page.
Let me dream as of old by the river,
And be loved for the dream always;
For a dreamer lives forever,
And a toiler dies in a day.

CURVED AIR ROCK THE ELECTRIC PALACE

South Street Luv
Sonja Kristina enthralled the Bridport crowd

Prog-rockers supported by excellent local three piece Motel 6

LEGENDARY prog-rock pioneers Curved Air took to the stage at the Electric Palace on Sunday, July 4th, fronted by the very graceful Sonja Kristina.

The six piece band played and enthralled a large audience, with some of them dancing at the foot of the stage. The progressive rock band played around one and a half hours of music, treating the audience with their music from the 1970s up until the present day.

Motel 6 | Frontman and lead guitarist Dan Anderson

Motel 6 | Rhythm section Chris Page (drums) and Laurie Higgins (bass)

The band had just returned from a triumphant appearance at the 40th anniversary of Glastonbury, playing on the opening day of the Festival. The Glasto show being their first since reuniting. They will soon be appearing at The Cheese and Grain in Frome during October.

The support band for the evening was the up and coming three piece power trio Motel 6 fronted by Dan Anderson (lead guitar) with Chris Page (drums) and Laurie Higgins (Bass). The band has recently started to write and perform their own music and there is a CD in the pipeline. These three guys also play and perform with the UK Pink Floyd Tribute Band where Dan is the lead guitarist. Being a Pink Floyd fan myself this band is also extremely good and they will be appearing on Friday, July 9th at Axminster's Guildhall.

Mayor of Casterbridge as seen through bookbinders eyes

ANYONE with an eye for a beautifully-bound book will be interested in a brand new display at Dorset County Museum. A group called the Cotswold Bookbinders have been working on a project designed for binders of all levels of competence. The project takes the form of a single book - in this case Thomas Hardy's The Mayor of Casterbridge - which members of the group have taken apart completely and then rebound to their own design, inspired by their reading of the text.

Design binding takes the form of the text of the book being interpreted by each binder in a very personal way. Inspiration from the book is then reflected by each binder in the decoration and embellishment of the book. The binding must also be practical, protecting the text, but the process results in a marriage of perfect bookbinding techniques with personal and contemporary artistic impression.

The Mayor of Casterbridge was chosen for a number of good reasons but mainly as many of the people involved are based in the South West. In most cases the binder will have taken the book completely apart before rebinding it and covering it in their chosen material and embellished with their unique design.

So this is not a competition, as there are no winners, no prizes and no rules; however the binding had to be in a contemporary style, and the original copy had to be completely deconstructed before rebinding.

You can view the results of this project in three cases in the Museum's Victorian Hall. Many of the resulting bindings in the display are for sale and anyone interested in purchasing a book can contact the organiser for further details which are provided with the exhibition.

The bookbinding display will be available to view until August 1st.

Jedward back on the box with their own reality show

JUST when you thought the small screen was safe, and they'd disappeared into obscurity, it turns out X Factor twins Jedward have landed their own reality ITV2 series.

The documentary-style show will be called Jedward: Home Alone and will follow the Irish duo as they leave their family home and head into the big wide world – even sleeping in separate bedrooms for the first time.

ITV told The Sun: "The series will film their trial run at cutting their apron strings. Without help from mum they'll have to get stuck into decorating, DIY, dining and maybe even dating." Jedward added: "The show will give fans an insight into our world."

AMANDA Holden may well be the only person who will miss fellow judge Piers Morgan if he quits Britain's Got Talent. Piers is rumoured to be leaving the show as part of a megabucks deal with CNN, but Amanda thinks it's a great opportunity to revamp the show. She said: "I'll miss him like mad, but the show's due a shake-up after three years."

DESPITE being due to depart Coronation Street later this year, Jack Duckworth (Bill Tarmey) is set to live on when Tyone and Molly Dobbs name their son after him. When baby Jack arrives in September, Tyrone decides to pay tribute to the man who has been like a father to him, unaware that Kevin Webster could be the baby's dad.

Win tickets to the Magic of Motown!

DIRECT from the USA and celebrating 50 years of Motown hits, the Magic of Motown tribute concert show is coming to Bridport on Friday, September 10th, and you could win a pair of tickets!

The record label that brought the likes of the Temptations, Diana Ross and the Supremes, the Four Tops, Stevie Wonder, the Jackson 5, Marvin Gaye, Lionel Richie, Martha Reeves, Smokey Robinson, Mary Wells and the Isley Brothers to the world recorded its first million-selling hit in 1960.

It became the world's greatest record label and The Magic of Motown authentically revives the biggest hits of all: Stop in the Name of Love; Signed, Sealed, Delivered; My Guy; What Becomes of the Broken Hearted; I Heard it Through the Grapevine; Endless Love; All Night Long; Heatwave; I'm Coming Out; Why Do Fools Fall in Love; Get Ready; Ain't Too Proud to Beg; My Girl; I Want You Back; I'll Be There and Dancing in the Street to name but a few.

The Magic of Motown is the biggest live concert show to hit Bridport, with an incredible cast, dazzling costume changes, superb choreography and a live band recreating that elusive Motown sound. This box office smash leaves all other Motown shows standing in its shadow.

To be in with a chance of winning a pair of tickets to this fantastic show just answer the following question: In which American city was the Motown label based?

Send your answer on a postcard with your name, address and daytime phone number to: Motown Competition, Lyme Media & Events, Unit 3, St Michael's Business Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset, DT7 3DB. Closing date for entries is Friday, August 27th. Winner will be drawn at random, and the editor's decision is final. No cash alternative, unusual rules apply.

You can also buy tickets for this incredible show, call the Electric Palace box office on 01308 428354 or visit www.electricpalace.org.uk. tickets cost £18.50 and £16.00.

Long Live Lizzy! MACBETH AT MAPPERTON

SENSATIONAL Thin Lizzy tribute Limehouse Lizzy return to Lyme on Saturday (July 10th) as part of the 'Legends Return' season at the Woodmead Hall. Currently on the Spirit of the Black Rose tour, Limehouse have been playing the classic rock hits of Lynott and co for the past fifteen years, and have frequently been referred to as the 'world's number one tribute to Thin Lizzy'. Tickets are on sale at the TIC (01297 442138) and by PayPal at this page on the website: <http://www.lymeregis.tv/legends.html>

JUST LIKE LYNOTT | Wayne Ellis is an uncanny look and sound-alike for the late great Phil Lynott

FOLLOWING last summer's sell-out tour of Twelfth Night, Castle Theatre Company will expand its July 2010 tour to include a host of new venues, including an open-air performance in the sumptuous grounds of Mapperton. A highly physical, dynamic and visual production of Shakespeare's Macbeth, this year's professionally produced and directed touring production is doubtless amongst the best of the UK's student theatre, and promises a truly exciting rendering of what is arguably Shakespeare's greatest tragedy.

Mapperton Gardens presents Castle Theatre Company's open-air performance of Macbeth at 6.30pm on July 10th and 2.30pm on July 11th. The audience are invited to picnic throughout the performance, on rugs or picnic chairs.

Macbeth is an intense and gripping thriller. Unlike the other tragedies there is no sub-plot – the action is sharply focussed on the wild, consuming ambition of the play's title character, his rash and bloody decisions, his ruthless and manipulative wife, and his breathless spiral through the dark and magical world of the Scottish Highlands. Add witches, ghostly visions, murders, sword fight, and some of the most famous speeches in theatre, and you have a cauldron full of mesmerising and memorable drama. Led by a professional directing team, Castle Theatre Company offers some of the best student drama in the UK, and has been touring with open-air Shakespeare plays for over thirty years. For more details or tickets call Mapperton Estate Office on 01308 862645, or email office@mapperton.com. Ticket prices £12 Adults/£10 Concessions.

Toyota Auris Hybrid is WhatGreenCar car of the year 2010

THE NEW Auris was chosen from a short-list of 10 green car finalists which were test-driven by six of the UK's leading green transport and environmental experts. The judging was completely independent and showcased the most innovative green new cars available to buy in the UK during 2010.

In addition to awarding the Car of the Year title to the new Auris hybrid, the judging panel also 'highly commended' the Seat

Leon 1.6 TDI Ecomotive, BMW 320d EfficientDynamics and Citroen DS3 1.6 HDi.

On behalf of the judging panel, Dr Ben Lane, Managing Editor of WhatGreenCar said: "With so many models now in the sub-100g/km category for CO2 emissions, this year's contest was more evenly matched than in 2009. The SEAT Leon excelled in its drive, handling and its excellent value, with one of the lowest WGC ratings in its class. The BMW 320d has dramatically improved on the emissions of its predecessor, without denting BMW's high standards of build and performance. And the new Citroen DS3 is the new low emission head-turner, and will be in high demand from car buyers who are looking for a green car that's 'sexy'."

"The judges, however, were particularly impressed by Toyota's Auris hybrid; the latest in their developing hybrid range and, most significantly, the first hybrid in the 'small family' class. Cheaper and smaller than the Prius, the new Auris will allow significantly more car buyers to join the 'hybrid owners' club. In addition to the car's superior drive and state-of-the-art driver control options, the judges also noted its 'normal' looks, in contrast to the more futuristic Prius; and a sign that hybrid technology is now becoming mainstream."

"One other short-listed car that also caught the judges' attention was the all-electric Mitsubishi iMiEV. With its distinctive looks, silent running, zero-emissions, and total simplicity, several judges thought that this was the 'car to watch', the only reservation being the price. With a list price of over £38,000, the iMiEV remains way out of reach for most car buyers. That said, if Mitsubishi can find a way to lower the price, the iMiEV will sell like hot cakes – with a WGC rating of only 10, we hope they will."

About the Toyota Auris hybrid The Auris' Hybrid Synergy drive is almost identical to that of the successful Prius, and features a 1.8 litre VVT-i petrol engine and two electric motors that work together to deliver power to the wheels in the most efficient way. The result is best-in-class CO2 emissions of just 89 g/km and a combined fuel economy of 74.3 mpg.

As in the Prius, the driver is able to switch between the power options: driving in EV-mode (electric only when batteries have sufficient charge), ECO-mode (the car decides how to use energy sources most efficiently), and POWER-mode (petrol and engine and batteries are used to maximum effect). The model is exempt from paying 'road tax' and the London Congestion Charge. The Auris hybrid is manufactured in the UK, and is available from 1st July.

Vauxhall hottest brand in June sales-sizzler

VAUXHALL has sold more cars than any other UK manufacturer in June, with a total of 30,190 vehicles registered last month, according to figures published by the SMMT today. The Astra was also Britain's best-selling range in June - overall and for fleet - bringing to a close a hugely successful first half-year for the Luton company.

The first six months of 2010 also revealed the sustained popularity of the Astra range, which conquered the hotly contested retail sales battle in its segment between January 1 and June 30. Fighting off tough competition from both the Ford Focus and Volkswagen Golf, the Astra range - which includes the UK-built Estate and new 5-door hatch - sold a total of 14,415 cars.

"This is great news for us," said Duncan Aldred, Vauxhall's Managing Director. "Product is king for UK buyers and our June sales prove that we're ticking all the right boxes with customers when it comes to the quality, performance and value of our cars. The new Astra, for example, is perceived as a premium product in its segment, but one that still offers great value for money. The fact that we're building it in Britain is the icing on the cake."

But the Astra wasn't the only top-seller from Vauxhall in the first half of this year. The ever-popular Zafira was revealed as the UK's best-selling compact MPV overall, with a total of 15,392 sales since January. With its clever Flex7 seating system, wide range of efficient engines and trims, the Zafira has become a benchmark for quality and versatility in its class, with a total of over 420,000 sold since the original model was launched in 1998.

The Insignia was another segment leader after the first six months of the year. Fighting off stiff competition from the BMW 3-Series, 15,575 cars were sold, reinforcing its position as a market leader for design, technology and driveability.

The new Astra range receives a further boost later this year when the Sports Tourer model joins the line-up. Blending sleek, rakish lines with a cargo capacity of up to 1550 litres, the Sports Tourer will only be built at Vauxhall's manufacturing plant in Ellesmere Port, Cheshire for the whole of Europe.

Renault's wind roadster - a compact, inventive, fun-to-drive coupe-roadster

Wind Roadster extends the brand's range with a new model wholly dedicated to the pleasure of its occupants inviting them to enjoy an alternative way of driving. Through its concept and the technology it employs, Renault's Wind Roadster is an ingenious illustration of the company's new brand signature, 'Drive the Change'.

Wind Roadster targets customers looking for a compact everyday car and, as a two-seat coupé-roadster with a length of 3.83 metres, it slots into the Renault range between Twingo and Clio. Thanks to its ingenious, electrically-operated roof system, which pivots open in just 12 seconds, Wind Roadster boasts unprecedented versatility: in the lowered position, the roof panel rests above the boot, meaning that boot volume is always 270dm³ VDA, whether the roof is up or down.

Wind Roadster has head-turning looks. Its blue-tinted gaze, muscular profile and rear-end forms, give it an emphatically modern profile. Unique styling details include the roof-cover cowl, chrome exterior door mirror housings and badging on the side which recalls the rotational movement of the roof-opening mechanism.

Meanwhile, there is an unmistakable 'cockpit' feel about the interior.

The instruments are reminiscent of the world of motorbikes, the sport seats feature integrated head rests, while the low-set driving position and sporty layout of the controls are typical of roadsters.

The expertise of Renault Sport Technologies (R.S.T) in the realm of motor-ing enjoyment needs no introduction, and Wind Roadster has benefited extensively from the expertise of R.S.T's engineers.

The new coupé-roadster is built on the same platform as Clio II Renault-sport, and its chassis is perfectly suited to the power outputs of the two engines that are available for the car, the 1.2 TCe 100 and the 1.6 VVT 133hp. One of the chief accomplishments of R.S.T's engineers is the fact that they have achieved the best weight to body-rigidity ratio for a coupé-roadster, allowing Wind Roadster owners to profit from an outstanding ride plus very low fuel consumption and CO₂ emissions.

Wind Roadster takes full advantage of Renault's expertise in the fields of active and passive safety too, while the excellence of its chassis and its powerful brakes ensure exceptionally reassuring handling.

Wind Roadster goes on sale from July 2010 in the UK and Slovenia, and from September in other western European markets.

Sporty Mazda 'Takuya' special editions for summer

MAZDA has introduced a new sporty Takuya special edition range for the Summer featuring evocative styling and high-levels of standard equipment representing excellent value for money to customers. The latest special edition range follows on from the successes of the Mazda2, Mazda3 and Mazda6 Tamura special editions earlier this year.

The name 'Takuya' – pronounced 'tah-koy-yah' – is taken from the Japanese for forerunner or pioneer. Available in Mazda showrooms across the UK from 1 July 2010 the new variants are available in the Mazda2, Mazda3 and Mazda6 model line-ups and offer added value to customers.

The generously equipped new Takuya models incorporate features normally only available with top-of-the-range derivatives, including exterior sports styling, larger alloy wheels, a Bluetooth® system and a sports interior.

Mazda2 Takuya – compact and sporty

Priced from £11,915 (OTR), the 1.3-litre Mazda2 five-door Takuya is the entry point into the special edition range. The Takuya boasts 16-inch alloy wheels, a sports styling kit (incorporating spoiler, sports bumpers and side skirts) and front fog lights. The interior benefits from black sports trim, trip computer, leather steering wheel and gear knob, steering wheel remote audio controls and a Parrot Bluetooth® hands-free kit.

The 1.3 Mazda2 (86ps) is a remarkably frugal yet feisty model. The hatchback produces just 125g/km CO2 and returns 54.3mpg, yet is one of the finest handling and fun to drive superminis on sale in the UK.

Mazda3 Takuya – added appeal for popular hatch

Moving up through the Mazda range, buyers will find the 1.6-litre Mazda3 five-door Takuya. This model boasts a very impressive specification including a leather steering wheel and shift knob, automatic dual-zone climate control air conditioning, black sports interior trim, sports seats, an integrated Bluetooth® system, LED lights, a six-disc CD changer and rain-sensing wipers.

Priced from just £15,780 the incredibly well appointed Mazda3 Takuya represents excellent value for money. Boasting a combined fuel economy figure of 44.8mpg and a low-for-class 149g/km CO2 emissions, the 105ps 1.6-litre hatchback will follow the Mazda2 Takuya's lead and offer unrivalled fun behind the wheel.

Mazda6 Takuya – frugal family fun

Mazda6 buyers will find Takuya special edition models in three different guises: 2.0-litre five-door (£19,845), 2.2D 163ps five-door (£20,945) and 2.2D 163ps Estate (£21,595). All three variants benefit from the fitment of 18-inch alloy wheels, a sports grille and dusk-sensing headlights on the exterior, while the interior benefits from an alloy pedal set, half-leather heated seats, auto-dimming rear view mirror, dual-zone automatic climate control air conditioning, leather steering wheel and shift knob and a choice of paint colours.

Vehicles fitted with the 2.0-litre petrol powerplant are capable of accelerating from 0-62mph in 10.3 seconds en route to a 134mph maximum speed. Combined fuel economy of 40.9mpg is achievable and CO2 emissions of 159g/km put the petrol Mazda6 in road tax band G. Meanwhile, the 2.2D 163ps models return an impressive 52.3mpg combined and produce 142g/km CO2 (five-door; estate produces 143g/km CO2). Both versions hit 62mph in just 9.2 seconds.

"The new Mazda Takuya range offers buyers genuine exclusivity, evocative sports styling and represents fantastic value for money," comments Mark Cameron, sales director, Mazda UK.

"Previous Special Edition Mazda models have proved hugely popular, fast selling and boast impressive residual values. The Takuya range offers yet another reason for value-seeking consumers that want something different to the mainstream to head down to their local Mazda dealership this summer."

Stars in a reasonably priced Kia

AFTER being tested and found up to the mark by The Stig, Kia's cee'd 2 1.6 manual five door C-segment challenger has made its first appearance as BBC2 Top Gear's "Reasonably Priced Car" in the latest series of the hit TV show.

The car was put through its paces by the white-helmeted mystery-man at the programme's Surrey test track prior to Kia being asked to provide three identical red cars for the latest series of the show.

Stephen Kitson, Communications Director of Kia Motors (UK) Ltd., said: "The last time Top Gear paid us any attention I think they tried to build one of our cars out of washing machines – so this is quite a step forward in their understanding of just how Kia has changed over the last six years."

"The cee'd has become a strong player in the mid-sized family car market and just this year J.D.Power named it best small-medium car in their annual quality survey – so it should stand up well to anything the star guests can throw at it."

The £13,930 cee'd 2 1.6 manual – that comes with Kia's unmatched 7 Year Warranty – features a four-cylinder 1,591 cc engine producing 124 brake horse power and a very flexible 113 lb/ft of torque. Capable of returning 46.3 mpg on the combined cycle the cee'd emits 146gms of CO2 per kilometre – though in use in the show it is unlikely to match that performance.

Older drivers refresher courses benefit all, says IAM

THE IAM (Institute of Advanced Motorists) has welcomed the new RAC report on older drivers which finds that 84% of drivers aged 70 or over acknowledge the value of a refresher driving course.

Neil Greig, IAM Director of Policy and Research said: "With ever-growing numbers of older drivers looking to stay safe and maintain independence, it is encouraging to see that there is a high degree of support for refresher courses."

"Older drivers have most of their crashes on high speed roads, particularly on slip roads and at junctions and roundabouts. Updating their skills to deal with these hazards and helping them to stay mobile for as long as possible should be the key aim of refresher courses. The IAM provides a Drive Check 55 refresher course which specifically address these issues.

"The IAM does not support compulsory retesting or medicals as we believe they will force many perfectly safe drivers to give up driving too early. This loss of mobility makes them a far greater financial burden on society and less able to access services and support. GPs need more training and information to help them advise patients on giving up driving and refresher courses."

SIR JOHN COLFOX SCHOOL SPORTS

WHILST there were no new records, Toro House's dominance of The Sir John Colfox School Sports Day was broken when Fleur de Lys snatched a share of the title in one of the closest finishes for a long time.

Since the forming of the new houses four years ago, Toro have won the previous three convincingly, but at this year's event held last Thursday, they were hard pressed all the way, and in the end had to settle for a share of the spoils. In addition to a tie for first place, Adler were only just behind, closely followed by Hinomaru.

The event included the now traditional mascot sprint; won this year by Fleur de Lys, with Adler's Eagle, whose costume allows little vision and required a colleague to steer it down the course, bringing up the rear.

Bridport make great start in summer leagueBRIDPORT 14pts WEST HANTS 3pts

BRIDPORT'S venture into the Dorset Summer Squash League proved to be successful with victory against a resilient West Hants side (writes Roger Lewis).

Every member of the team proved that when the chips are down they can turn their hand in becoming very adventurous, and able to adopt a winning attitude as shown in this performance.

Robert Muir at one was matched against the determined and tenacious West Hants captain Brian Birch, and he found from the onset that Birch had the ability to manoeuvre him out of position before executing a very tight drop shot at important stages. The strategy was the deciding factor as he had Muir frequently stretching and he eventually took the game 9-3, 10-9, 9-5.

Mike Perry made a welcome return for the home side, and he proved his worth at two in an excellent performance against Andy Metcalfe. His control and positional play outwitted his opponent time and time again and proved too much for Metcalfe as Perry cruised through to win 10-8, 9-3, 9-2.

An all lady affair at three saw Bridport's hard hitting Wendy Staddon against the tight boast and drop shots of Alex Boeg. In a very competitive match full of fine squash, it was Staddon's tactics and ability to execute the winning shots when it mattered that secured a very good 9-7, 3-9, 9-3, 9-6 victory.

Andy Atyeo made his Bridport debut to team squash at four against Andy Parker. Once Atyeo had settled into his game, he demonstrated what a useful asset he will be with some very stylish and tenacious play. He matched Parker stroke for stroke resulting in many fine and long rallies, and as Parker tired, Atyeo seized the initiative for an excellent 9-2, 5-9, 8-10, 9-3, 9-0 victory.

World record for Blake

PAUL BLAKE showed why he is being tipped as a gold medallist in the 2012 Paralympic Games in London by winning the 1500m in a new world record time of 4min 37.1sec at Exeter last week.

Paul (20) was taking part in the British Milers Club meeting at the Exeter Arena Athletics Stadium where he finished fifth in his race against able bodied athletes, and in doing so knocked almost a second off the current record for T36 disabled category held by a Russian who also holds the 800m world record.

Unfortunately Paul's time will not be officially registered because the event is not one of the listed meetings but it is recognised in the sport.

This weekend he will be running at Gateshead in the T36 200m where it is hoped he can achieve an A standard. He already holds the fastest time this year for the 800m.

PACEY!IN-FORM SKIPPER | Uplyme & Lyme Regis captain Ashley Caddy attacks the Tiverton batsmen in a lively opening spell with short-leg Rob Thom waiting to pounce during Saturday's two wicket victory. Caddy plundered a fine 96 with the bat to carry his side to victory.

SENIOR GETS HIS MAN - DOVELL IS FIRST SIGNING

BRIDPORT manager Trevor Senior has made his first signing of the season in Ryan Dovell, the former Hamworthy United midfielder that he tried to sign last season writes Stuart Broom.

Senior confirmed that Dovell had agreed to join the Bees, after rejecting the opportunity last campaign.

"I tried to sign him last year when he was at Hamworthy, but he decided to join Poole Town. It seems things didn't work out well there; they often used him in a left back role, and after I contacted him again a few days ago he has agreed to join us," said Senior.

"He's a quality player that can play in midfield or up front and will be a big asset for us. I am pleased to have finally persuaded him to join us, and am sure he will add some additional goal power to the team."

Dovell wasn't at the first pre-season training night last Thursday but over fifty players were, and they were put through their paces by new fitness coach Dougie Smith.

Senior was pleased with the turn out that included a few new faces including a Hungarian left-sided midfielder, and Lee Cuff and Lee Cleal who both left the club early last season. Whilst Cuff will vie with Jamie Fry for the goalkeeper's position, Cleal has told Senior he would like to fight for a place up front, his original position before he became a keeper.

Senior was particularly pleased with the turn out as there were 15 players who had appeared in the first team squad last season missing due to holidays and work commitments.

Birdie on 18th earns Morgan the Williams Bowl

with Steve Percival
Club Championships

SUNDAY proved to be one of the hottest days of the summer so far and, with only a slight breeze blowing, fairways were extremely dry and hard with a resulting long run on the ball with greens fast and true.

WELL DONE | Adrian Morgan (centre) receives the Williams Bowl from club captain Gerry Donlan and club President Anne Humphries.

However, to counter the assistance given by these conditions, Head greenkeeper David Everett and his staff had devised some challenging pin positions which necessitated careful consideration of line of approach to the green on many of the holes.

Played as a 36 hole event, the field, which comprised mainly the lower handicap players in the club, was well supported with a field of 49 players taking part.

As the temperature rose rapidly in the afternoon, some of the competitors found the going a little too challenging and a significant reversal of fortunes took place. However, some, particularly John Yorke and Adrian Morgan, performed consistently well to record excellent scores.

Whilst Terry Peadar (15) achieved the best net score in the afternoon with a 65 he failed to feature in the prize winners.

The eventual winner of the gross (Williams bowl) competition was Adrian Morgan (5) with a second round score of 76 which, combined with his first round gross of 71, gave him a total of 147. However, victory was only achieved over second placed Scott Love (1) through an excellent birdie on the final 18th hole.

Scott, still only a junior player, was one shot behind with a gross of 148 achieved through a 76 in the morning and a one over par 72 in the afternoon. Also with a total of 148 was Jolyon Bugg whose gross of 78 in the afternoon put him in third place.

In the net competition the result was a little more conclusive with John Yorke (6) scoring net rounds of 70 and 65 to run out the winner by three shots over Greg Matthews (5) with a total of 138. In third place with 139 was Junior player Johnny Ebdon (8).

LYME REGIS LADIES with Ellie Langford
July Medal and Scratch Cups

CONDITIONS for the July Medal couldn't have been better, the rain forecast for the day didn't arrive and with the ball running on in the dry conditions some good scores were recorded and handicaps tumbled. Results: Scratch Cups Silver Division: Winner Jane Southcome 76 Gross; Runner up Ellie Langford 82 Gross. Bronze Division: Winner Ursula Pratt 96 Gross; Runner up Jenny Pollard 97 Gross ocb.

Medal: Division 1: 1 Julia Collins 63; 2, Jane Southcomb 69; 3, Prue Russell 71. Division 2: 1 Ursula Pratt 68 ocb; 2, Jean Moss 68; 3, Jean Heywood 71 ocb. Division 3: 1 Deirdre Potter 73; 2, Lucille Bannister 74; 3, Linda Deem 74 ocb.

There were handicap reductions for Lynda Bass 21 to 20, Sandra Shefferd 21 to 20, Ursula Pratt 28 to 26, Prue Russell 12 to 11, Jean Heywood 24 to 23, Jean Moss 22 to 20, Julia Collins 20 to 17, and Jane Southcome 7 to 6.

The Interclub team played Sherbourne at home and lost by 2.5 to 4.5

THREE SHOTS CLEAR | John Yorke (centre) is presented with the Welling Trophy by club captain Gerry Donlan and club President Anne Humphries.

IMPRESSIVE LADIES EARN 10 POINT HAUL

ANOTHER mixed bag of league results this week with the ladies taking the honours with 10 points away to top of the league Swanage.

The men took 2,3 and 8 points respectively in the Chasmpionship, Division One and Division Two leagues.

It's somewhat ironic that a team can play away at Greenhill and get nine points but only manage two points when we entertain them at home.

The B team could now make an extra effort and get themselves back into Division One, lying in second place as they do now.

The ladies now have a narrow one point lead at the top of Division Two and, if they stay focused, should be serious contenders for a leg up to Division One.

Apart from the obvious prestige in getting promotion, there would be a lot fewer long journeys involved, a good enough incentive on its own.

Another perfect week of friendlies winning against Crewkerne, Donyatt & Pincas Garden.

NEW BEES SPONSORS HAVE PLENTY OF VROOM!

LOCAL company M & M Commercial who sell commercial vehicles will be next season's sponsors of Bridport Football Club.

The company owned by Mike Halford and Donald Whipp and based at Magdalen Lane was the first of the sixty six names who entered the draw pulled out by Bees manager Trevor Senior last Friday at the Beehive.

As well as having their logo printed on the first team shirts, they will win two advertising boards in the ground as well as a full page advert in every home match day programme.

They will also receive two VIP season tickets to all first team match as well as having their logo on all Bridport Football Club stationery.

Bridport Post Office was the second name drawn out and they win a half page advertisement in the match day programme for the season.

Third prize, a match ball advert and VIP match day pass to the first home match on the season was won by O'Brien Roofing and Leadwork Ltd.

Bridge House, Bridport won the fourth prize of a bottle of whiskey.

Mr Halford who attended the draw and used to play for Lyme Regis back in the late 70's said: "I was very surprised but delighted that we will be sponsoring the Bees next season. They had an excellent season under Trevor Senior and we are hoping that they will do even better this time around."

Bridport Football Club Chairman Adrian Scadding was delighted with the response for sponsors and said: "I would like to thank everyone who supported us by entering the draw - it was brilliant. The money generated is very important to help the club's finances."

SEASIDERS BACK IN TRAINING

LYME Regis players return to the fold after their summer break for pre-season training on Tuesday, July 13th. Club manager Robin Townsend is looking to build on last season's magnificent season.

The first team landed the Premier Division title and Coronation and Challenge cup's and the Reserves the Arthur Gage Cup whilst the Bantams also finished the season strongly and could well challenge for honours in the season ahead.

DORSET FUNERAL PLAN LEAGUE
PREMIER LEAGUE*Dorchester 277-8 beat*Blandford 230-8 by 47 runs

CAPTAIN Martyn Richards' aim to get 20 points from every game was never more poignant than on Saturday when Dorchester made it five wins on the trot.

Although they only managed 19 points due to stubborn resistance from Blandford's middle order, it was just enough to move them ahead of Parley, who lost at Stalbridge, to claim second spot in the Premier League.

Fittingly it was Richards himself that led the way by breaking a century fourth wicket stand that looked to at best reduce the county town's haul of bowling points. He brought himself on to bowl and finally broke Blandford's resistance by trapping White (56) before his partner Cole (46) was run out.

This proved decisive and Dorchester picked up three more wickets as Blandford looked to maximise their own batting points despite never threatening to win the match.

Dorchester once again set a tough target amassing 277-8 with three strong innings from top of the order batmen.

When they lost Steve Gerety for 12, Pete Moxon had already set out his stall in an opening stand of 57, and he continued his glorious vein of good form with another sparkling 67 which was continued by Dave Maslan (58) and Dan Belt (77) as they took Dorchester's score past the 200 mark.

They then lost wickets as the rest looked to score quick runs with only Rob Waite (20) getting beyond double figures.

Andy Mead (3-31) put early pressure on the visitors, dismissing Carte (2) and Shepherd (10) and when Moxom trapped Woodruff lbw for 26 to leave Blandford 41-3, it looked like Richards would get his wish.

However White and Coles resistance looked to have put a dampener on their start before Richards played the captain's innings by getting the breakthrough.

Although Kendrick scored 40 no one else could help, leaving Blandford well short with Richards and Moxom both claiming a brace apiece.

Poole Town 157 all out beat Weymouth 105 all out by 52 runs

HAVING beaten league leaders Parley last week, Weymouth skipper Paul Payne may have thought at tea that his side had a great chance of beating their replacement at the top of the table after his side had dismissed Poole Town for 157 all out.

In fact it could have been less, but the visitors recovered from 74-7 to dig in and earn three bowling points.

Weymouth however suffered the same fate, and were 70-6, but unlike Poole who had to thank tailenders Miller (25), Ford (21) and Thomas (27 not out), the Seaside capitulated as Quinn (4-8 from 4.2 overs) swept through the tail.

Matt Lawes (3-17), Dan Hutchen (3-30) and Ben Doidge (2-39) soon blasted through the hosts middle order after an opening stand of 36, to leave Weymouth the upper hand at 74-7, before the tail wagged.

Although they chased down 227 last week, Payne admitted that they didn't want to have been chasing more than 130 on what was a difficult wicket, and against probably the best bowler in the league in the form of Martin Ford.

Payne (12) and Jim Ryall both departed with the score on 13 in reply, and apart from John Armfield who top scored with 25, no one really got to grips with the situation and Weymouth were dismissed for just 105 all out, 52 runs short of target.

Division OneSuttons 350-6 beat*Beaminster 213 all out by 137 runs

BEAMINSTER almost inevitably were beaten by league leaders Suttons, but they put up a good fight and gained an excellent eight points towards their relegation battle.

The match was switched from Dean Park to Kings Park which had long boundaries and a rock hard, uneven outfield. Winning the toss Suttons batted and openers Brown and Arnold looked comfortable until first change Mark Barber had the latter caught for 23.

This brought Darren Cowley to the crease, who used the game as a warm-up to Dorset's three day match against Cheshire on Sunday at Dean Park.

He sent the Beaminster fielders scurrying to all parts of the ground as he added 74 for the second wicket before Brown (59) was brilliantly caught by Nick Park at long off just inside the boundary.

A third wicket stand of 99 followed with Beck before Nick David once again broke a vital partnership bowling both Cowley for 110 and Beck for 50, before Rawlings hit an unbeaten 46 not out as Suttons posted an imposing total of 350-6 off their 50 overs.

All the Beaminster bowlers figures were spoilt by Cowley's innings, but Simon Jones with 0-40 off ten overs was the pick of them, with David (2-56 off eight) and Barber (2-50 off five) bagging a brace apiece.

Park and David played well against the quick opening pair of McCann and Rawlings in reply before Park (12) was out to a tame shot. Both Fred Everitt (12) and Dan Hillier (0) went cheaply, but David was in determined mood and played some nice shots before he was run out for 41 as he tired. Jones played well for his 33, but at 147-7 it appeared Beaminster's game was finished.

There followed however and entertaining partnership of 63 between Hugh Rathbone (17) and Paul Martin (46) who treated the home side to some of their own medicine, scampering quick singles and hitting bowlers to all corners of the ground.

Beaminster were finally out for 213 but secured five batting points as well as three from bowling.

Skipper Ross Baker said: "We put in a really good performance against an excellent side on a difficult ground, the outfield was atrocious. We played three spinners which helped as the wicket was a bit unpredictable at pace.

"Simon Jones bowled well again but without reward, whilst Nick David once again showed what an asset he has been this season by breaking a dangerous partnership and then holding the top of the innings together. Hugh and Paul's partnership was great, as they gave the Suttons bowlers a bit of a pasting!"

"The spirit in the side is excellent, and everyone is enjoying it, and I think we are heading in the right direction. We still believe we have the chance of catching two or three of the other sides at the bottom."

Weymouth 2nd 153-5 beat Shroton 152 all out by 5 wickets

WEYMOUTH had a comfortable win against Shroton with Dean Janaway returning to form with the bat leading the way, although it was a good allround bowling display that set up the victory.

Shroton got off to a good start with the aggressive Ball (30) and McPhillimy (26) taking them past the half century, but once their partnership was broken they lost wickets steadily to some sensible bowling from Neil Walton (3-38), Michael Pearce (2-42) and Dave Triotter (1-30).

Edwards (25 not out) help push the score beyond the hundred mark as Shroton ground out the overs to accumulate batting points, but a late burst from Faraz Ulhaq (3-5) polished off the tail for an under par 152 all out.

In reply Janaway showed signs of returning to form with a stylish 40 but was caught on the boundary going for a big hit after putting on an opening wicket partnership of 60 with James Almond (21).

Good contributions from Andy Bray (24) and Sean Fitzgerald (17) helped Simon Mitchem (24 not out) saw Weymouth to victory with over 12 overs to spare.

Captain John Ryan said: "They're a decent side so to bowl them out for 152 was a good effort. Dean then showed us the obvious class he has, and with nearly every one contributing a steady score it was relatively easy in the end.

"With four wins and four defeats and a mid-table position at the moment, we have to be pleased having been promoted this season."

Division TwoBlandford 2nd 220-9 beat*Dorchester 2nd 205-8 by 15 runs

CAPTAIN Ian Sibley was pleased with picking up 12 points from their defeat at Blandford after things had backfired a bit on him.

Sibley on winning the toss decided to bowl. "We have been quite good chasing in the past few weeks, so I thought it would work again."

Unfortunately the hosts got off to a flier, putting on 80 for the first wicket in just 12 overs, and whilst they steadily pegged them back, the damage had been done.

Steve Budd (3-326) was the most successful bowler and Joe Power (2-23 off 12 overs) the most economical, as Blandford were restricted to 220 of their allocation.

Things got worse for Sibley as his side made a slow start in reply and after 25 overs they only had 65-2 on the board.

However Sibley injected some pace with another attractive innings of 47, and despite good contributions from Stuart Voss (27), James Dunham (32) including two massive sixes, and Budd who finished with 28 not out, Dorchester just couldn't pull back the situation.

"The difference really was their good start and our slow one. In between we probably played the better cricket, and in the end 12 points was not a bad haul from the game."

Division ThreeSuttons 2nd 162 all out*lost to Bridport 168-3 by 7 wickets

BRIDPORT bounced back to form with a convincing victory over bottom side Suttons.

With captain Sam Good suspended for two games and fined £30 by the Dorset League for remarks he made about the Martinstown umpire two weeks ago, Mark Smith assumed temporary charge.

Confidence has been low in the team of late following the Martinstown defeat and the mauling from Cattistock last week, but all that changed against Suttons.

"It was an all round better performance," said Smith. "It was a disaster against Cattistock, but the lads were really full of confidence and it showed both in our bowling and batting."

Ashley Nicholls was back to near his best and was the most successful Bridport bowler with 3-16 from eleven overs, whilst Ed Halson (2-19) and Wes Lewis backed him up well.

The turning point of the innings however was a stunning catch by Dom Gape at deep mid-off to dismiss their top scorer who had reached 64 with a series of big hits and had looked to be setting a target nearer 200.

Smith and Liam Toohill made an excellent start in reply putting on 79 for the first wicket before Smith perished for 45 going for a big hit. Although they lost Toby Hall cheaply, Gape joined Toohill and they comfortably took the score to within ten of the requirement before Toohill fell for a fine half century. Gape hit the winning runs with a six to finish on 59 not out.

"There was no doubt Dom was the man of the match. He took a wicket, held four catches; two of them stunners; and then hit an unbeaten 59. However it was an excellent team performance and if we can take the same form and confidence into the rest of our games, I think we are capable of beating anyone in the league," added Smith.

Parley 2nd 297-2 beatMartinstown 215 all out by 82 runs

MARTINSTOWN found Parley far too good for them with all the hosts batsmen scoring well against a disappointing Martinstown bowling attack.

Opener Samuel Collins hit 127 and with fellow opener Harry Chalk (55) put on a massive partnership. Even when Matt Rimmer trapped Chalk lbw, Sam Thompson continued the onslaught on an unbeaten 57. Liam Banfield finally bowled Collins before Chris Jennings helped himself to 35 not out as Parley closed on 297-2.

In reply Ed Nicholls (25) lost Lee House (0), Henry Lewis (1) and Conor Ross (8) very early on, and although Martinstown showed resistance with their middle order of Danny Dancer (34), Nick Quintrell (37) and top scorer Matthew Camp (66) they finished well short of their target.

Division FourBeaminster 2nd 166-8 lost*to Stalbridge 2nd 169-4 by 6 wickets

BEAMINSTER lost the toss and were put into bat. Runs were hard to come by but some attacking shots from Joe Singleton (32) and Dean Hyett (19 not out) accelerated the innings and the hosts finished on a total of 166 for 8. Ade Phillips 21 and Adam Herring 17 both made good starts.

In reply Singleton also starred with the ball as well as the bat. He took 3 for 31 and had Stalbridge struggling on 5 for 2.

But the visitors eventually reached their target with only four wickets down, however this could have been different if Sullivan (77 not out) walked when he edged behind for one with the scoreboard reading 20 for 2 which he admitted after the game!

Division FiveMarnhall 66 all out lost*to Weymouth 3rd 67-1 by 9 wickets

WEYMOUTH 3rds crushed Marnhall 2nd's to go top of the league following the defeat of Sherborne 2nds at Puddletown.

Having dismissed the hosts for just 66 all out, they knocked off the target in just 11 overs.

What was surprising is that it took Marnhall 40 overs to reach their total!

Sami Rathnayake took 3-13 off 12 overs, whilst Cameron Armfield (2-18), Graham Puckett (2-19) and Al Sterling (2-7) all bagged a brace.

It looked like skipper Joe Trevett and Craig Johnson would see Weymouth home, but Trevett fell for 28 just five from victory which saw Johnson undefeated on 29 not out.

Division SixWeymouth Longshots 133 all out*lost to Abbotsbury 136-0 by 10 wickets ABBOTSBURY got back to winning ways at Redlands with a vastly improved team performance.

Winning the toss, the Swans chose to field first and Chas Duerdoth took two early wickets on his last appearance before departure to Australia, finishing with 3- 25.

Longshots then consolidated their innings due to Mark Hardy (24), Mike West (21) and above all Rob Hodges who compiled a steadfast 41 not out as the rest of the home batsmen capitulated, mostly to James Pretty (3-25) and Gary Pittman, whose 4 for 24 included a catch for his father, this being an example of the good fielding shown throughout by Abbotsbury.

After tea, a solid start was required by the visitors, and that's just what was provided. Simon Pengelly continued his excellent batting form with 71 not out and, backed up by captain Nick Kneebone with 42 not out, Abbotsbury reached their target in an increasingly impressive manner without the loss of a single wicket.

Bridport 2nd 100 all outlost to Wareham 219-8 by 119 runs

BRIDPORT found it tough against Wareham and although restricting them to 219-8 in their innings, found the Wareham bowlers too good for them and were bowled out for just 100 in reply. Despite an early success, Kilpatrick, batting at three held the innings together with an unbeaten 59 not out, and with contributions from Britt (42), Pope (23) and Bishop (23) they set Bridport a reasonable target.

Jack Walklett with 3-47 off 9 overs was the most successful bowler, with Rod Gay the most economical with 1-11 off 9 overs. He also took a fantastic catch at square leg to get rid of Bishop when he was starting to look dangerous.

Bridport started badly, losing Duane Gay (8), Dean Sweet (1) and Pete Bustin (3) and Mark Tozer (0), and only Tom Lings with 25, Rod Gay

(13) and Dan White (17 not out) got into double figures. Wareham's Collier claimed four wickets and Hector and Trueman three each as Bridport collapsed to a 119 run defeat.

Branksome 2nd 66 all outlost to Dorchester 3rd 236-7 by 170 runs

DORCHESTER 3rds carried on their recent good form with a comprehensive 170 run victory over Branksome 2nds. Having won the toss for only the second time this season, stand in skipper Jae Miller elected to bat against a Branksome team that could only field ten men.

Nick Beer (8) was the unlucky first wicket to fall; bowler J McCloughin (3-61) catching the ball between his legs! A 52 run partnership between Miller and Hugh Pryce followed however before with the score on 66 McCloughin struck again having Pryce caught, before bowling George Thomas (3) unluckily playing on.

Some impressive hitting and quick running between Matt King and Miller saw another 50 plus partnership before King (24) was caught off the bowling of Watson (2-48). George Chubb then arrived but his excellent season form deserted him as he came and went for 2 leaving Dorchester on 134 for 5 after being bowled by Tamil (2-31).

Sensible batting from John Legg took the score to 176 before Miller, whose innings included 10 fours and a six, was bowled by Watson for 83 in the 36th over. Some lusty blows from Legg and Jamie Quinten gave Dorchester their third 50 partnership of the innings and took the score to 229 before Legg (42) was caught behind from the bowling of Tamil. Dorchester innings finished on 236 - 7 with Quinten unbeaten on 26 and Cameron Lucas 7 not out.

Branksome's reply had started well but with the score on 21 Lloyd Mitcham (1-18) superbly bowled opening batsmen Yorke, ironically with a leg stump yorker.

The home team's innings then crumbled as impressive bowling by Matt King (2-19) and George Chubb (2-22) reduced them to 36-4. Some good hitting by Revell and McCloughlin took the Branksome score to 62 before John Legg (2-3) bowled Revell in his first over.

Dorchester bowlers then cleared up the tail quickly as the hosts final five wickets fell for just four runs leaving them 66 all out with the off spin of Sam Roles (2-1) taking the final two wickets.

Miller, standing in for Pete Tucker, was very pleased with his young teams performance. "It was a very good professional display from all the players. Our score of 236 on a difficult wicket set the game up for us and the young bowlers were magnificent in bowling Branksome out for just 66. It was a good win and we can now focus on the big game next week against Sturminster Marshall at home."

Sunday Division FourCharlton Down 189-4 lost*to Symene 191-6 by 4 wickets

MARK Tozer came to Symene's rescue for the second week running after his side once again got off to a poor start.

Last week the diminutive batsman/wicket-keeper hit 122 coming to the wicket at 16-2, and this week he missed out on another century when he found himself 99 not out as the Symondsburys outfit scraped home against bottom side Charlton Down with just an over to spare.

Opening bowlers Colin Willcox (0-29) and Sam Challis (1-18) were so economical that they bowled their twelve overs straight through by which time the hosts had only advanced to 49-1.

However the rest of the Symene bowling attack were not so effective and led by Nick Roe (48 not out), A Cossens (41) and A Smith (37), Charlton Down reached 189-4 in their allotted overs with Liam Toohill claiming 2-36.

Former Cattistock bowler Richard Fagence (2-25 off 12 overs) removed Willcox (10) and Toohill (3) and with Phil Hawkins (6) also back in the pavilion, Symene were in trouble at 26-3. Last week Tozer and Marcus Grunschloss (30) shared a fourth wicket partnership, this time it was 110. With the loss of two quick wickets after the latter's dismissal, it needed a steady hand from skipper Richard Keech (19 not out) and two big sixes that, one from each batsman in the 43rd over to get ahead of the game, to steer them home.

Tozer missed out on consecutive centuries when with victory in sight he needed four for his ton , but could only make three to finish 99 not out and victory with a over to spare.

Weymouth & Portland Sailing Academy

Vendée Globe hopefuls to train at sailing academy

WEYMOUTH and Portland National Sailing Academy has been chosen as one of the venues to train British sailors to challenge for the Vendée Globe, the round-the-world single-handed yacht race, sailed non-stop and without assistance.

The Artemis Offshore Academy (AOA) whose aim is to help the best of British sailing talent win major offshore solo and short-handed races, will use the world class facilities as one of the venues for the UK excellence training programme.

The WPNSA will be working closely with the AOA to provide a

The newly launched AOA will operate from a variety of bases to maximize the effectiveness of the training in British waters during the summer, including extensive use of the WPNSA, The Solent and in the South of France, La Grande Motte; already an established French Figaro school during the winter.

The WPNSA is one of the finest sailing locations in the UK, offering extensive facilities both on the water and on land, offering sailors the combination of a sheltered harbour and more challenging meteorological and tidal conditions out in the bay.

John Tweed, Chief Executive at the WPNSA commented: "Looking across the channel, it is clear that French sailors' success in short-handed sailing is backed by a strong network of training centres."

"I have no doubt that we have the world-class training facilities in place to harness the talent of the Artemis Offshore Academy sailors."

Wildcats break their duck

WEYMOUTH WILDCATS 52 SCUNTHORPE SAINTS 41

AT LAST! After ten straight defeats Weymouth Wildcats finally broke got their first win of the season and in so got the monkey off their back!

It came as an enormous relief to the riders, management and supporters when Gary Cottham secured victory in heat 14 when he cut inside Steve Worrall to take three points.

With team mate Richard Andrews, who had fallen on lap two remounting to snatch third and a 4-2 win after Saints Gary Irving fell on the next bend, it gave the Wildcats an unassailable lead.

Weymouth got out the blocks immediately with Scunthorpe assets Luke Chessell and Byron Bekker roaring off for a 5-1 in the opening heat, much to the delight of the Wildcats supporters. Saints hit back to level the scores in heat two and then took the advantage with Scott Richardson pegging Cottham back in heat three with Tom Brown's fall on the last turn first lap.

James Cockle combined with Chessell for another 5-1 keeping ex-Cat Benji Compton back in third for the Wildcats to take the lead.

Richardson took his second win in the next heat sharing the points after a great battle between Brown and Jones who overcooked it into the fence allowing Cottham through.

Bekker and Cottham stuck in another 5-1 to give the Wildcats a six point lead. Cockle kept the lead in-tact winning heat seven, again another fine battle for the minor places in the first staging of the race before Andrews and Irving fell.

Birks split Brown and Chessell in the re-run heat eight giving the Wildcats and eight point advantage after a nasty looking crash with Steve Worrall and Birks.

Two shared heats followed with Compton taking heat nine and Bekker heat 10 after Chessell slipped from second to fourth. Saints guest Mark Jones split the home pair in heat 11 but couldn't stop Cockle taking the win to put the Wildcats ten up.

Richardson emerged from the pits in the black and white helmet for a double points tactical ride in heat 12 which was awarded in his favour following Brown falling on the second bend of the last lap. With an 8-1 for the Saints the scoreline was narrowed to a Wildcats three point lead.

The Wildcats lead was extended in heat 13 with a great display of team riding from Bekker and Cockle keeping Jones back in third.

"We've lost ten meetings and now having won proves the fighting spirit is there and hopefully the wins should come now."

After Cottham's victory secured match in heat 14, Bekker and Cockle were split by Richardson in the re-run of the final heat after Richardson took Compton wide to give a meeting score of 52-41.

Bekker received the bumps from his team mates after completing a well overdue paid maximum on his 23rd birthday. Bekker said "A few people said to me if it's gonna happen, it's gonna happen on your birthday. I was actually more nervous going into this meeting than any."

There is no meeting at the Wessex FM Raceway this Friday, with the Weyline Wildcats in South Wales in the 2nd leg of the KO Cup at Newport (7pm start).

Bekker added: "It's going to be very hard, we've just got to knuckle down."

"We've lost ten meetings and now having won proves the fighting spirit is there and hopefully the wins should come now."

The next home meeting is on Friday July 16th in a local National league derby meeting against Bournemouth Buccaneers. Bekker concluded: "We can beat teams at home now, we just have to knuckle down."

"We weren't far away against the Select side earlier in the year and that was without James [Cockle] so we have a good chance."

SKIPPER'S 96 IS THE KEY

A CRUCIAL 73-run eighth wicket partnership between Ashley Caddy and Bruce Maltby carried Uplyme & Lyme Regis to their second win of the season.

Batting first Tiverton got off to a solid start with siblings Tim and James Reed riding their luck to put on 74 for the first wicket as Uplyme's leading wicket-taker Steve Batey, in particular, beat the bat on a number of occasions.

The breakthrough finally came when Jack-Lamb-Wilson cleaned-up James Reed.

The hosts were further held up by a 40-run second wicket partnership but once top-scorer Tim Reed (39) edged to the gauntlets of Jedd Whittington off Adam Caddy Uplyme gradually found a foothold in the match..

All of the Uplyme bowlers eventually chipped-in with the wickets with skipper Ashley Caddy (2-44), Lamb-

BY HOWARD LARCOMBE

Wilson (2-45) and Adam Caddy (2-52) snaring two apiece.

In reply the top order misfired for the third week in succession as the home crowd saw their team stumble their way to 30 for 4.

Adam and Ashley Caddy then staged a recovery with a 45-run stand before Adam fell for 8 before Tim Daniel (16) helped his skipper take the score up to 140 for 6.

But it wasn't until Maltby and Caddy compiled their match-winning effort that the result was secured. Caddy was finally stumped for a magnificent 96 chasing a boundary that would have given him a much-deserved century.

The win sees Uplyme leap-frog Feniton into sixth place with a trip to fifth placed Iplepen next on the agenda.

In reply acting skipper Dave Norman lead from the front with 28 but his side were forced to shut-up shop at 132 for 8 with the victory target too far in the distance.
